State History Arizona 2004 Edition Cd Rom 2003:

Children's Books in Print, 2007, 2006 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2003-04 The Source Loretto Dennis Szucs, Sandra Hargreaves Luecking, 2006 Genealogists and other historical researchers have valued the first two editions of this work often referred to as the genealogist's bible. The new edition continues that tradition. Intended as a handbook and a guide to selecting, locating, and using appropriate primary and secondary resources, The Source also functions as an instructional tool for novice genealogists and a refresher course for experienced researchers. More than 30 experts in this field—genealogists, historians, librarians, and archivists—prepared the 20 signed chapters, which are well written, easy to read, and include many helpful hints for getting the most out of whatever information is acquired. Each chapter ends with an extensive bibliography and is further enriched by tables, black and white illustrations, and examples of documents. Eight appendixes include the expected contact information for groups and institutions that persons studying genealogy and history need to find. Perspectives, 2003 Teaching Life Writing Texts Miriam Fuchs, Craig Howes, 2008 The past thirty years have witnessed a rapid growth in the number and variety of courses and programs that study life writing from literary, philosophical, psychological, and cultural perspectives. The field has evolved from the traditional approach that biographies and autobiographies were always about prominent people—historically significant persons, the nobility, celebrities, writers—to the conception of life writing as a genre of interrogation and revelation. The texts now studied include memoirs, testimonios, diaries, oral histories, genealogies, and group biographies, and extend to resources in the visual and plastic arts, in films and videos, and on the Internet. Today the tensions between canonical and emergent life writing texts, between the famous and the formerly unrepresented, are making the study of biography and autobiography a far more nuanced and multifarious activity. This volume in the MLA series Options for Teaching builds on and complements earlier work on pedagogical issues in life writing studies. Over forty contributors from a broad range of educational institutions describe courses for every level of postsecondary instruction. Some writers draw heavily on literary and cultural theory; others share their assignments and weekly syllabi. Many essays grapple with texts that represent disability, illness, abuse, and depression, ethnic, sexual, and racial discrimination, crises, and catastrophes, witnessing, and testimonials, human rights violations, and genocide. The classes described are taught in humanities, cultural studies, social science, and language departments and are located in, among other countries, the United States, Great Britain, Canada, Australia, Germany, Eritrea, and South Africa. Beckett Football Card Price Guide James Beckett, 2004-09 The 21st edition of this popular guide includes virtually every football card ever produced. Highlights prices and listings of cards featuring players and teams, both college and professional, from 1894 to present. Also includes coverage of autographs, collectible programs, starting lineups, and more. SIROW, 2002 Gale Directory of Databases, 2007 This is a guide to computer-readable databases available online in CD-ROM format or in other magnetic formats. Details include database descriptions, costs, and whom to contact for purchase. The material is indexed alphabetically.
