Providing a survey of Anglophone African detective fiction from the late 1940s to the present day this study traces its history both as a literary form and a mode of critical exploration of the fraught sovereignties of the African state and its citizens Since the late 1940s African writers including Cyprian Ekwensi Arthur Maimane Adaora Lily Ulasi Hilary Ng weno Unity Dow Parker Bilal and Angela Makholwa have published over 200 murder mysteries police procedurals spy thrillers and other fictional narratives of investigation and discovery in English language newspapers magazines and novels Distributed widely across the continent s diverse cultural and political geographies these texts share aesthetic characteristics and thematic preoccupations that reflect transnational networks of production circulation and influence Anglophone African Detective Fiction 1940 2020 surveys this literary history and examines how African writers have repeatedly harnessed the detective story to interrogate postcolonial realities of selfhood and the state It argues that African writers have turned the detective story into a highly productive while at the same time suspense filled and entertaining mode of social and political critique first of colonialism and the independence era and latterly of neoliberal governance Offering an overview of paradigmatic texts from Ghana to Kenya and Sudan to South Africa the book traces the contours of the history of Anglophone African detective fiction that is at once a cultural history of a uniquely African assessment of the ongoing problematics of sovereignty and decolonization The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean Since 1950 Simon Gikandi,2016 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English State Secret Hope Dube,1981-01-01 Pacesetter ,1988 Readings in African Popular Fiction Stephanie Newell,2002 Draws together primary texts and a range of analytical perspectives on African popular fiction Texas Advance Sheet April 2012 , The University Unfettered Ian F. McNeely,2025-05-13 The public university as we once knew it is gone and never coming back After generations of fickle state support public universities behave more and more like their private counterparts charging what the market will bear offering what consumers demand competing relentlessly with peers and managing their own priorities But looking back on how we got here offers surprising reassurance U S public universities emerged largely intact after a decade of disruption bookended by a financial crisis and a pandemic Resisting widespread calls for corporate reinvention or disruptive innovation they hewed to their core missions If anything exposure to the rigors of competition only enhanced their longstanding commitments to the public good The University Unfettered tells the story of a single public research university that was a generation ahead of its peers in repositioning itself for an independent future It answers eight fundamental questions about how any contemporary university balances competing missions questions about how money is spent how education and knowledge are pursued and how decisions get made Each chapter blends deeply informed reconstruction of strategic decisions at one university with concise analyses of the entire sector An unparalleled account of how a typical public university really works this book makes a timely and distinctive case for the nonelite institutions that educate the vast majority of America s college students Rebutting critiques from both left and right it offers a refreshingly optimistic outlook on higher education today Mysteries of Africa Eugene Schleh,1991 Using the highly popular genre of detective mystery fiction this volume explores the insights available in African centered stories The sample of writings used ranges from the colonial era to the present and covers the work of both Africans and outside observers from Europe and North America
