Tanners Thicket:

Tanner's Law Charles G. West, 2008-01-02 A soldier gets swept up in the gold rush in this western from Charles G West Tanner Bland leaves his Virginia home on foot to fight for Dixie and rides back on a fine horse. Most folks would call that a profit until they consider his loss. With everyone thinking the soldier dead, his younger brother marries Tanner's fiancée hours before he returns. His home no longer his own, Tanner heads west to join an old army pal and hit the gold mines of Montana. But the wagon train the men join is not what they are hoping for. In the train with them are the four Leach brothers, each one meaner than the next. Now if Tanner and his buddy want to make it to Montana alive, they'll have to keep their enemies close and their weapons closer. The West as it really was, savage, heroic and unforgettable. Tanner, Boy Orphan Fred Tanner, 2005 This book is about a family finding themselves in a desperate situation after the loss of their mother. With help from caring individuals, a home was found for the children at the Methodist Children's Home in Winston-Salem, NC. Pop Woosley and his dedicated and understanding care givers provided the education and leadership that directed the children toward an opportunity for a better life. The life of the boy Fred Tanner and what his physical and emotional experiences were well documented as he describes the daily life at this home where he lived for 16 years. In some instances, living in an orphanage is much better than living in some family situations. The structured living environment was so designed that one home mother could manage the behavior of 30 boys. The boys had the opportunity to get into boyhood mischief and that they did. Boys had their own understanding of orphan humor. Some boys lived the life that would rival Huckleberry Finn and Tom Sawyer while some boys were mellow and studious. Through sports, work, responsibility, scouting, and some social events, the boys were mellowed somewhat into responsible young boys. Hard work and discipline were a matter of fact and became the life habits of most of those raised at this home. Opportunity for further education was made available through work programs and college assistance to those that wished to attend. Most all boys served a tour in the military. Children and their parents many in not much better situations than we were gave their pennies and nickels so that we could have a pair of shoes or a decent set of clothes. This was most humiliating. Other people of means were kind enough to see the need of over four hundred children.
