Statues Without Shadows:

Statues Without Shadows Anna Swan, 2006-05-08 Anna grew up accepting that her parents were glamorous but mysterious figures who had both died by the time she was seven It was only when she was in her thirties that she discovered they had both committed suicide As she began to search for the truth about her parents she uncovered details about their fascinating and incredibly divergent backgrounds her father's family can trace their ancestry to King James II Her mother came from a Welsh mining family They met in 1950s literary London and fell in love But a year after Anna was born her mother was dead The book explores the nature of loss exile betrayal and Anna's own deep rooted instinct to refuse the horrors of her past and transcend the legacy of her parents This is a compelling moving story of uncovering the past in order to reclaim the future

Art & Its Shadow Mario Perniola, 2004-05-01 Art and its Shadow is an extraordinary analysis of the state and meaning of contemporary art and film Ranging across the work of Andy Warhol cyberpunk Wim Wenders Derek Jarman thinking on difference and the possibility of a philosophical cinema Mario Perniola examines the latest and most disturbing tendencies in art Perniola explores how art notably in posthumanism psychotic realism and extreme art continues to survive despite the hype of the art market and the world of mass communication and reproduction He argues that the meaning of art in the modern world no longer lies in aesthetic value above the art work nor in popular taste below the art work but beside the artwork in the shadow created by both the art establishment and the world of mass communications In this shadow is what is left out of account by both market and mass media the difficulty of art a knowledge that can never be fully revealed and a new aesthetic future
