though it may always present the possibility, it may not often pose a significant problem in the practical use of the technique. There are two main reasons. First, as mentioned earlier, the technique is not a static one. It is dynamic and, as such, it is not necessary to use it in a rigid, static form. It can be modified and adapted to the particular needs of the situation.

These books are intended for the use of secondary school students following a course of study in civics, history, government, and economics. They are designed to help the student understand the nature and operation of government and how it affects his daily life.
