Education for the Professions in Times of Change
Linda Clarke, 2020-12-02 The eminent Harvard educationalist Howard Garner writes a preface to the Place Model within his Good Project Blog which provides a preface to this timely book Professional is a slippery term open to willful abuse misuse and misunderstanding as evidenced by the ways in which this chameleon term can be used as both a compliment and an insult In this book academics from a range of professional fields deconstruct professional and reimagine professionals in an age of rapid change where professionals are both increasingly in demand and frequently under threat Several deploy the lens of Clarke's Place Model to examine professions including teaching midwifery social work journalism and optometry Some papers are empirical and some are based around using the Place Model as a thought experiment All turn a critical eye on professionals and all find them to be like all humans neither devils nor divines Maya Angelou but at their best a combination of two indispensable characteristics trustworthiness and expertise

Assessing and Correcting Reading and Writing Difficulties Thomas G. Gunning, 2002 This text provides numerous examples and thorough coverage of procedures for assessing and instructing struggling readers of all ages In keeping with current theory the text emphasizes prevention and early intervention It is based on the premise that student performance is variable and that assessment and instruction are planned and modified to meet the varied needs and levels of students Gunning does not subscribe to a medical model that emphasizes deficiencies but rather focuses on what students can do This text calls for inclusion not exclusion but recognizes that struggling learners need expert carefully planned assessment and instruction Assessment coverage includes a grounding in basic concepts of tests and measurement While formal standardized measures are described emphasis is placed upon informal but highly regarded techniques such as the informal reading inventory miscue analysis running records observation think alouds holistic scoring of writing and portfolio assessment In addition to chapters devoted specifically to assessment ways to connect assessment and instruction are mentioned throughout the text Coverage of instructional techniques is thorough and practical Nine chapters are devoted to instructional techniques

Autoantibodies Research Progress

Quentin P. Dubois, 2008 An autoantibody is an antibody a type of protein manufactured by the immune system that is directed against one or more of the individual's own proteins Many autoimmune diseases in humans most notably lupus erythematosus are caused by such autoantibodies This book presents the latest research from around the world New Directions in Geriatric Medicine Lee Ann Lindquist, 2016-04-09 This book is designed to present the clinical geriatric trends within general internal medicine and family practice which practitioners often encounter in caring for their older adult patients Chapters focus on increasingly difficult clinical decisions that practitioners have to make in caring for older adults who often experience medical complications due to memory loss physical disability and multiple chronic conditions Written by experts in geriatric medicine each of these chapters start with the most up to date clinical geriatric research and provide specific examples or case studies on how to use this information to address the clinical needs of older adult patients In addition there is a set of concise take home points for each chapter that are easy to commit to memory and implement in clinical care of aging patients As the only book to focus on current trends in geriatric research and evidence based eldercare practice Clinical Trends in Geriatric Medicine is of great value to internists family practitioners geriatricians nurses and physician assistants who care for older adults 100 Explorers Who Shaped World History Jerome Prescott, 1996 A collection of stories of 100 brave souls who braved the unknown The Publisher ,1909 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1884 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1884 The Pall Mall Budget ,1880 Library World ,1968 Short stories [formerly Magazine of short stories]. ,1897 United Services and Empire Review ,1912 The Library World ,1968 Ohio Monthly Record ,2008 Rules of state administrative agencies In full text with tables and index including chart of proposed rules with time and location of public hearings The Nation ,1905
