The (Diblos) Notebook James Merrill, 1966 The (Diblos) Notebook J. Merrill, 1975 The Diblos) Notebook James Ingram Merrill (Schriftsteller), 1965 The (Diblos) Notebook James Ingram Merrill, 1865 James Merrill Langdon Hammer, 2015-04-14 Langdon Hammer has given us the first biography of the poet James Merrill 1926 95 whose life is surely one of the most fascinating in American literature Merrill was born to high privilege and high expectations as the son of Charles Merrill the charismatic cofounder of the brokerage firm Merrill Lynch and Hellen Ingram a muse ally and antagonist throughout her son's life Wounded by his parents bitter divorce he was the child of a broken home looking for repair in poetry and love This is the story of a young man escaping yet also reenacting the energies and obsessions of those powerful parents It is the story of a gay man inventing his identity against the grain of American society during the eras of the closet gay liberation and AIDS Above all it is the story of a brilliantly gifted fiercely dedicated poet working every day to turn his life into art After college at Amherst and a period of adventure in Europe Merrill returned to the New York art world of the 1950s he was friendly with W H Auden Maya Deren Truman Capote Larry Rivers Elizabeth Bishop and other midcentury luminaries and began publishing poems plays and novels In 1953 he fell in love with an aspiring writer David Jackson They explored boys and bars as they made their life together in Connecticut and later in Greece and Key West At the same time improbably they carried on a forty year conversation with spirits of the Other World by means of a Ouija board The board became a source of poetic inspiration for Merrill culminating in his prizewinning uncanny one of a kind work The Changing Light at Sandover In his virtuosic poetry and in the candid letters and diaries that enrich every page of this deliciously readable life Merrill created a prismatic art of multiple perspectives and comic self knowledge expressing hope for a world threatened by nuclear war and environmental catastrophe Holding this life and art together in a complex evolving whole Hammer illuminates Merrill's chronicles of love loss and the poignant personal journey they record James Merrill's Apocalypse Timothy Materer, 2000 Materer interprets Merrill's body of work from the perspective of his epic The Changing Light at Sandover and shows that in his earliest poems and in the volumes preceding The Changing Light Merrill repeatedly expressed his fear of nuclear holocaust and his sense that some momentous revelation was near at hand Materer demonstrates how apocalyptic motifs also inspire Late Settings The Inner Room and A Scattering of Salts BOOK JACKET

Pine,1971 Hellenes and Hellions Alexander Karanikas,1981

Harvard Review ,1995 The Book Buyer's Guide ,1965 Collected Novels and Plays James Merrill,2002

Following the widely celebrated Collected Poems this second volume in the series of James Merrill s works brings us Merrill as novelist and playwright Just as in his poems we come upon prose pieces dramatic dialogue and even a short play in verse in his novels and plays we find the rhythms of his poetry reflected and given new form Merrill s first novel The Seraglio is a daring roman a clef derived in large part from his early life as the cosmopolitan son of Charles Merrill one of America s most famous twentieth century financiers Written in a highly refined prose that owes something to Henry James the book is a compelling portrait of the luxury and treachery swirling around the Southampton beach house of an irrepressible family patriarch with his many mistresses and ex mistresses in attendance told from the point of view of his lively but troubled son At the other end of the narrative spectrum we find The Diblos Notebook an experimental novel in which a young American s adventures on a Greek island are deconstructed and assembled into a tentative fiction before our eyes Merrill s plays including the one act comedy of manners The Bait and the Chekhovian The Immortal Husband a reinvention of the myth of Tithonus who was granted eternal life but not eternal youth are also fresh turns on his characteristic themes home and travel reality and artifice simplicity and complication And for the first time in print here is Merrill s short play The Birthday a fledgling effort written in 1947 and a fascinating window onto the concern with spiritual communication and the otherworldly that would later blossom into his great epic The Changing Light at Sandover Modern American Literature: H-O Joann Cerrito,Laurie DiMauro,1999 Presents critical excerpts and analyses from a variety of sources that combine to provide overviews of the work of 157 of the most significant authors of the modern period in American literature arranged
