The Possessed:

Demonic Possession and Exorcism in Early Modern England Philip C. Almond, 2004-07-01 This book is exclusively devoted to demonic possession and exorcism in early modern England. It offers modernized versions of the most significant early modern texts on nine cases of demonic possession from the period 1570 to 1650, the key period in English history for demonic possession. The nine stories were all written by eyewitnesses or were derived from eyewitness reports. They involve matters of life and death, sin and sanctity, guilt and innocence of crimes which could not be committed and punishments which could not be deserved. The nine critical introductions which accompany the stories address the different strategic intentions of those who wrote them. The modernized texts and critical introductions are placed within the context of a wide-ranging general Introduction to demonic possession in England across the period 1550 to 1700. Colloquial Kazakh (eBook And MP3 Pack)

Zaure Batayeva, 2014 Colloquial Kazakh provides a step by step course in Kazakh as it is written and spoken today. Combining a user-friendly approach with a thorough treatment of the language, it equips learners with the essential skills needed to communicate confidently and effectively in Kazakh in a broad range of situations. No prior knowledge of the language is required. Key features include progressive coverage of speaking, listening, reading and writing skills; structured jargon-free explanations of grammar; an extensive range of focused and stimulating exercises; realistic and entertaining dialogues covering a broad range of situations. The Early English Impersonal Construction Ruth Möhlig-Falke, 2012-06-06 The Early English Impersonal Construction aims to demonstrate that an understanding of the functional and semantic aspects of impersonal verbs in Old and Middle English can shed light on questions that remain about these verbs today.

The Shape of the Gospel Robert C. Tannehill, 2007-02-20 Most of the following essays reveal my interest in the significance of literary forms both the short literary forms in the Gospels such as pronouncement stories and an entire Gospel as a formed narrative. I am interested in the significance of these forms not just in literary classification systems. I am interested in literary form as a clue to how the text may engage hearers and readers, impact their thought and life if they are sensitive respondents. The Gospel stories have been shaped in ways that give them particular potentials for significant engagement. Study of literary form can help us recognize these potentials from the Introduction Contents Part I Gospel Sayings and Stories 1 Tension in Synoptic Sayings and Stories 2 The Pronouncement Story and Its Types 3 Varieties of Synoptic Pronouncement Stories 4 Types and Functions of Apophthegms in the Synoptic Gospels 5 The Gospels and Narrative Literature 6 You Shall Be Complete If Your Love Includes All Matthew 5:48 Part II The Gospel of Mark 7 The Disciples in Mark The Function of a Narrative Role 8 The Gospel of Mark as Narrative Christology 9 Reading It Whole The Function of Mark 8:34-35 in Mark's Story Part III Paul's Gospel 10 Paul as Liberator and Oppressor Evaluating Diverse Views of 1 Corinthians 11 Participation in Christ A Central Theme in Pauline Soteriology Making the Case Robert Leventhal, 2019-11-18 One hundred years before Freud's striking psychoanalytic case histories, the narrative psychological case history emerged in the second half of the eighteenth century in Germany as an epistemic genre Gianna Pomata that cut across the disciplines of medicine philosophy law psychology anthropology and literature It differed significantly from its predecessors in theology jurisprudence and medicine Rather than subsuming the individual under an established classification moral precept category or type the narrative psychological case history endeavored to articulate the individual in its very individuality thereby constructing a self in its irreducible singularity The presentation and analysis of several significant psychological case histories their theory and practice as well as the controversies surrounding their utility validity and function for an envisioned science of the soul constitutes the core of the book Close and distant F Moretti readings of key texts and figures in the discussion regarding empirical psychology psychologia empirica experiential psychology Erfahrungsseelenkunde and medical psychology medizinische Psychologie such as Christian Wolff J C Kr ger J C Bolton Ernst Nicolai J A Unzer J G Sulzer J G Herder Friedrich Schiller Jacob Friedrich Abel Marcus Herz Karl Philipp Moritz J C Reil Ernst Platner and Immanuel Kant provide the disciplinary historical scientific context within which this genre comes to the fore As the first systematic argument concerning the early history of this genre my thesis is that the psychological case history evolved as part of a pastoral apparatus of care concern guidance and direction for what it fashioned as the unique individual as the discursive medium in a process by which the soul became a self The narrative psychological case history was in fact a meta genre that transcended traditional boundaries of history and fiction medicine and philosophy psychology and anthropology and sought for the first time to explicitly link the experience history memory fantasy previous trauma or suffering of a unique individual to illness deviance aberration and crime In a word it demonstrated as Freud later said of his own case histories in Studies on Hysteria the intimate relation between the history of suffering and the symptoms of illness die innige Beziehung zwischen Leidensgeschichte und Krankheitssymptome This genre not only had a profound and far reaching effect on the evolution of German and European literature one thinks of the rich traditions of the Novella and the Fallgeschichte from Goethe B chner R L Stevenson Edgar Allen Poe and Chekhov to Kafka and beyond but in shaping modern literature the clinical sciences and even popular culture The book should therefore be of interest not merely to Germanists modern European cultural historians historians of science and literary historians but also those interested in the history of medicine and psychology the origins of psychoanalysis the history of anthropology cultural studies and more generally the history of ideas
