The Potential of Fantasy and Imagination Anees A. Sheikh, John T. Shaffer, 1979    The Future of Art Marcella Tarozzi Goldsmith, 1999-09-02 Draws upon a wide range of aesthetic theories and artworks in order to challenge the view that art is valueless or purely subjective    Writing the Future Suzanne McCray, Doug Cutchins, Cindy Schaarschmidt, 2025-07-07 Writing the Future Perspectives on Nationally Competitive Scholarships offers a timely and nuanced exploration of fellowships advising. This volume brings together experienced practitioners scholars and scholarship foundation representatives to reflect on a rapidly evolving landscape one shaped by shifting student demographics emergent technologies and renewed commitments to student success across a broad spectrum. The essays in this collection engage deeply with the developmental rhetorical and institutional dimensions of nationally competitive awards advising. Topics include appreciative advising writing strategies and the complexities of guiding students as they envision and articulate aspirational futures. Contributors examine how fellowship applications serve as tools for student growth knowledge transfer and reflection. They also explore how advisors can navigate the tensions between authenticity institutional representation and the demands of prestige based selection processes. Several chapters offer practical guidance on writing effective nomination letters engaging in selection processes as external reviewers and cultivating advising practices that are both ethical and empowering. A concluding chapter on NAFA's history situates these contributions within a broader narrative of professionalization and purpose in the field. Ideal for new and seasoned advisors alike as well as faculty administrators and foundation partners this volume affirms the transformative potential of a fellowships advising process that centers on student agency fosters critical reflection and reimagines what access to competitive awards can and should mean    Hypnosis and Imagination Robert Kunzendorf, Nicholas Spanos, Benjamin Wallace, 2018-10-26 The book's first three chapters by Sheehan and Robertson Wagstaff Council Kirsch and Grant conclude that three different factors turn imagination into hypnosis. The next three chapters by Lynn Neufeld Green Rhue and Sandberg Rader Kunzendorf and Carrabino and Barrett explore the hypnotic and the clinical significance of absorption in imagination. Three subsequent chapters by Coe Gwynn and Spanos and Gorassini examine the role of compliance and imagination in various hypnotic phenomena. Pursuing the possibility that some hypnotic hallucinations are experienced differently from normal images the following two chapters by Perlini Spanos and Jones and Kunzendorf and Boisvert focus on negative hallucinating which reportedly blocks out perceptual reality. The remaining three chapters by Wallace and Turoskey Crawford and Persinger pursue other physiological differences and possible physiological connections between hypnosis and imagination    Fantasy and Imagination in the Mexican Narrative Ross Larson, 1977    Education as Human Knowledge in the Anthropocene Christoph Wulf, 2022-03-27 This book examines the concepts of the Anthropocene and globalisation in our society and the changes that these are bringing about in education and human learning. The book argues that there needs to be reflexive approach to issues that affect the fate of the planet and the future of humans brought about by an education that looks to the future Wulf argues that a change in education and socialization can only succeed based on an understanding of previous educational ideas and considers the significance of Confucianism and spiritual education that emerged in the East The book traces key educational ideas throughout history to show how education and human knowledge are closely linked highlighting the need for us to pay careful attention to repetition mimesis and the imagination in learning It shows how a future oriented education must engage with issues of peace and violence global citizenship and sustainable development This timely and compelling book will be of great interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of philosophy of education the history and anthropology of education sustainability education and global citizenship education   Modern Culture Roger Scruton,2006-11-24 The word culture lies at the centre of contemporary debates about the past and future of society Here the author argues for the religious origin of culture in all its forms and mounts a defence of the high culture of our civilization against its radical and deconstructionist critics

Imagining the Past, Constructing the Future Maria C.D.P. Lyra,Brady Wagoner,Alicia Barreiro,2021-02-17 This book takes a sociocultural developmental and dialogical perspective to explore the constructive and interconnected nature of remembering and imagining Conceived as cognitive affective processes both emerge at the border of the person and his or her socio cultural world Memory is approached as a functional adaption to the environment using the resources of the past in preparation for action in the present Imagination is tightly related to memory in that both aim to escape the confines of the concrete here and now situation however while memory is primarily oriented to the past imagination looks to the future Both are embedded in the exchanges with the social and cultural milieu and thus theorizing them has relied on key ideas from Lev Vygotsky Frederic Bartlett and Mikhail Bakhtin Thus this book aims to integrate theories of remembering and imagining through rich empirical studies in diverse cultural settings and concerning the development of self and identity These two groups of studies compose the subparts that organize the book

Politics of Catastrophe Claudia Aradau,Rens Van Munster,2011-05-02 This book argues that catastrophe is a particular way of governing future events such as terrorism climate change or pandemics which we cannot predict but which may strike suddenly without warning and cause irreversible damage At a time where catastrophe increasingly functions as a signifier of our future imaginaries of pending doom have fostered new modes of anticipatory knowledge and redeployed existing ones Although it shares many similarities with crises disasters risks and other disruptive incidents this book claims that catastrophes also bring out the very limits of knowledge and management The politics of catastrophe is turned towards an unknown future which must be imagined and inhabited in order to be made palpable knowable and actionable Politics of Catastrophe critically assesses the effects of these new practices of knowing and governing catastrophes to come and challenges the reader to think about the possibility of an alternative politics of catastrophe This book will be of interest to students of critical security studies risk theory political theory and International Relations in general   EDRA; Proceedings
