The Problem of History in Mark James Robinson, 2010-09-01 A collection of essays on political issues examining the interplay between religion and politics with emphasis on American faith communities rooted in biblical tradition Jesus, Skepticism, and the Problem of History Zondervan, 2019-10-08 In recent years a number of New Testament scholars engaged in academic historical Jesus studies have concluded that such scholarship cannot yield secure and illuminating conclusions about its subject arguing that the search for a historically authentic Jesus has run aground Jesus Skepticism and the Problem of History brings together a stellar lineup of New Testament scholars who contend that historical Jesus scholarship is far from dead These scholars all find value in using the tools of contemporary historical methods in the study of Jesus and Christian origins While the skeptical use of criteria to fashion a Jesus contrary to the one portrayed in the Gospels is methodologically unsound and theologically unacceptable these criteria properly formulated and applied yield positive results that support the Gospel accounts and the historical narrative in Acts This book presents a nuanced and vitally needed alternative to the skeptical extremes of revisionist Jesus scholarship that on the one hand uses historical methods to call into question the Jesus of the Gospels and on the other denies the possibility of using historical methods to learn about Jesus

The Problem of History in Mark James M. Robinson, 1971 Textual Criticism and the Synoptic Problem in Historical Jesus Research Hyeon Woo Shin, 2004 The criteria for originality priority and authenticity used in textual criticism the study of the Synoptic Problem and historical Jesus research share one basic similarity they were all designed to distinguish a prior tradition from its later developments All these areas of research investigate the transmission process which involves both preservation and alteration The sets of criteria used in one area are thus analogous to the sets of criteria used in the other two areas This assumption can be confirmed by observing numerous instances of such similarity in these sets of criteria On the basis of this assumption many other instances of similarity may be newly attained by adapting the set of criteria used in one area for use in the other two areas The sets of criteria for these three areas of research can be further generalized into a mother set of criteria which will provide us with a degree of methodological unification in these disciplines Mark's Gospel, a History of Its Interpretation Sean P. Kealy,1982 The Future of Economic History Alexander J.

Field,2012-12-06 This collection represents a modest attempt to chart a new course for the intellectual discipline known as economic history The book is not about productivity growth in the 1990s lest the title give rise to any confusion As a group these essays suggest new and potentially fruitful areas or approaches for research and at the same time address weaknesses in past efforts One important audience will be graduate students attempting to decide whether to write a dissertation in economic history or trying to select or refine dissertation topics in the area and determine how to approach them Some of the essays will most certainly be appropriate additions to the or semester courses in economic history that remain a fixture in quarter graduate economics training programs A second audience should be established scholars who are now or have in the past done research in economic history and are interested in the perspectives of a relatively younger group of scholars The term younger is used here advisedly to describe a group of scholars born between 1943 and 1954 Nevertheless the authors of these essays can on at least one dimension be distinguished from the pathbreaking new economic historians who established their academic reputations in the early 1960s Indeed the contributors to this volume include students of such pioneers as Richard Easterlin Albert Fishlow William Parker and Jeffrey Williamson Writing on the Gospel of Mark

William Telford,2009 This thorough manual for advanced students and their supervisors and anyone researching or writing on the Gospel of Mark is the opening volume in an important new series of Guides to Advanced Biblical Research Together with an essay on the current state of research and a discussion of the future of Markan study it provides a chrestomathy of samples of Markan research together with a review of recent dissertations and a full annotated bibliography Substance Abuse and the Family Michael D. Reiter,2025-08-12 This fully updated third edition of Substance Abuse and the Family demonstrates what it means to view addiction through a systems lens by considering biology and genetics family relationships and larger systems Michael D Reiter illustrates how to examine a person's predilection to become addicted their social environment around substance use the functionality of their family and various treatment options Chapters are organized around two sections assessment and treatment The first section pays attention to how the family system organizes around substance use and abuse Here family roles culture and other issues such as family violence and resilience are covered Two chapters are also included on the neuroscience and genetics of addiction There are also chapters on roles of family members in addicted families using genograms and working in a culturally sensitive way with culture specific consideration paid to Black Hispanic and Latin American Asian American and Indigenous families A separate chapter examines issues faced by both youth and adult children of alcoholics The second half of the book explores what a systems orientation means in practice and goes over self help groups for individuals and families An overview of the major family therapy theories is included which examines intergenerational experiential communication strategic systemic and postmodern models New to this edition is a chapter on trauma and stigma and its relationship to addictions and substance use and abuse Each chapter has been updated with cutting edge research and additional figures to enhance concepts as well a case application to demonstrate and apply each chapter s ideas Intended for undergraduate and graduate students as well as beginning practitioners this text provides one of the most in depth examinations on the topic available The Future of Economics Alexander J. Field,2020-03-10 Originally published under the title The Future of Economic History this book attempts to chart a new course for the intellectual discipline known as economic history and determine its contributions to the study of economics The authors suggest new and potentially fruitful areas and approaches for research and at the same time analyze the weaknesses in past efforts to chart a course for the future Gospel-criticism and Historical Christianity Orello Cone,1891 The London Quarterly & Holborn Review ,1965 The Holy Bible, According to the Authorized Version (A.D. 1611): pt. I. Genesis. Exodus. pt. 2 Leviticus-Deuteronomy Frederic Charles Cook,1878 The Charismatic Figure as Miracle Worker David Lenz Tiede,1972 The Student's Scripture History William Smith,1872 Methodist Magazine and Quarterly Review ,1891 The Holy Bible According to the Authorized Version (A.D.1611) Frederic Charles Cook,1878 The New Testament History William Smith,1884
