The Diary Of A Wrinkle:

The Diary of a Wrinkle Ilana Karen Levinsky, 2010-02-25 Isla Lawson has just discovered a deep ugly and crooked wrinkle stretched across her forehead and further investigation reveals her greatest fear that much detested above the lip wrinkle She's too young to look old The Diary of a Wrinkle is a comical novel that chronicles the life of a forty something single woman who is experiencing a midlife crisis She is incredibly unsatisfied with her life has not realized her professional aspirations of becoming a real writer and has yet to meet the man of her dreams However when she discovers her first wrinkle she is thrown into a whirlwind of self pity and bitterness She also realizes that she is surrounded by wrinkle free people all of whom are obsessed with self improvement that focuses solely on their appearance In a desperate attempt to escape plastic surgery hell Isla pours her emotions into a diary that slowly becomes her vehicle into the past She reminisces about family old boyfriends and a myriad of characters and experiences rich with cultural themes that take place in the countries she had lived in and traveled Isla's dual quest for finding happiness within herself as well as meeting the right man is a parallel thread in her diary We are held captive to Isla's ongoing dilemma to either succumb to chasing after her youthful appearance or choosing to age with grace yet meeting a man who will love her just the way she is

Sinnott, 2013-06-29 Everyday Memory and Aging is a comprehensive handbook which touches virtually every aspect of current everyday memory research and methodology as they relate to aging This book demonstrates that the results of divergent approaches to the study of everyday memory and aging frequently dovetail and it widens significantly the scope of investigation and know ledge in the field Aging in Slavic Literatures Dagmar Gramshammer-Hohl, 2017-07-15 In Slavic studies aging and old age have thus far been only marginal concerns This volume brings together the scattered research that has been done up to now on aging as represented and narrated in Slavic literatures The essays investigate Bosnian Croatian Serbian Polish Russian Slovak Slovene and Ukrainian representations of age aging in various literary genres and epochs and analyze age as a powerful marker of difference and as constitutive of social relations and personal identity Interpreting the Aging Self Harry J. Berman, 1994 The International Journal of Aging & Human Development, 2005 Current Perspectives on Aging and the Life Cycle, Volume 3 Gail Unruh, 1990-02-01 This book explores the life and work of the 18th century English artist explorer naturalist and author Mark Catesby 1683 1749 During Catesby s lifetime science was poised to shift from a world of amateur virtuosi to one of professional experts He worked against a backdrop of global travel that incorporated collecting and direct observation of nature Catesby spent two prolonged periods in the New World in Virginia 1712-19 and South Carolina and the Bahamas 1722-26 which he documented in Natural History of Carolina Florida and the Bahama Islands the first large format color plate book on the natural history of North America. Interweaving elements of art history, history of science, natural history, illustration, painting, materials book history, paper studies, garden history and colonial history this volume brings together a wealth of unpublished images as well as previously unpublished letters by Catesby with contemporary accounts of his collecting and encounters in the wild and details of the materials and techniques of packing and transporting plants and animals across the Atlantic.

The Essential

Guide to Aging in the Twenty-first Century Donald H. Kausler, Barry C. Kausler, Jill A. Krupsaw, 2007 This third edition of The Graying of America has been retitled, revised and expanded. In concise, nontechnical language it offers middle aged and senior readers useful information on the effects of aging on health, the mind and behavior. Provided by publisher Everyday Memory and Aging Jan D. Sinnott, 1992. Everyday Memory and Aging is a comprehensive handbook which touches virtually every aspect of current everyday memory research and methodology as they relate to aging. This book demonstrates that the results of divergent approaches to the study of everyday memory and aging frequently dovetail and it widens significantly the scope of investigation and knowledge in the field.

Qualitative Methods in Aging Research

Jaber F. Gubrium, Andrea Sankar, 1994 This volume of original articles by leading researchers explores the methodological possibilities and difficulties involved in doing qualitative work with the aged. The contributors illustrate with numerous examples the strengths of qualitative strategies and techniques for uncovering meaning, dissecting processes and examining cultural and other issues of difference between people and groups.

Gerontological Nursing & Healthy Aging

Priscilla Ebersole, 2005. Gerontological Nursing & Healthy Aging provides thorough coverage of promoting healthy aging when caring for older adults. The intent throughout the book is to facilitate the healthiest adaptation possible for any older adult regardless of the situation and disease process. The majority of the book is devoted to discussing the significant problems that may occur and methods that nurses may use to make these problems more bearable to solve some and to help the elder find the best possible resolution towards healthy aging. Incorporates healthy aging strategies to maximize the healthiest behaviors of clients/patients with dementia and their caregivers. Disease processes are discussed in the context of healthy adaptation, nursing support responsibilities to help the reader gain an understanding of their client's experience. Focus on health and wellness establishes a positive perspective to aging. Careful attention to age, cultural and gender differences are integrated throughout to help the nurse understand these important considerations in caring for older adults. Each chapter provides a consistent organization including learning objectives, research study questions, activities, assessment guidelines, and resource lists. Assessment guidelines are incorporated throughout as tables, boxes and forms to provide useful tools for practice. Activities and discussion questions at the end of every chapter provide situations to expand student knowledge and understanding. Appendices and resource lists assist in further exploration of material Text correlates with federal guidelines for Healthy People 2010 to assist the student in integrating knowledge about healthy aging considerations Expanded content on pharmacologic and nonpharmacologic pain management in Chapter 15 and integrated within appropriate content sections Completely revised Culture and Aging chapter includes discussions of health disparities and working with interpreters to help identify nursing care interventions appropriate for ethnic elders New author team with Theris Touhy and Kathleen Jett adds a wealth of experience related to gerontological nursing education and research Middle Age and Aging Bernice L. Neugarten,1968-12-15 The process of aging is receiving an increasing amount of attention from behavioral scientists Middle Age and Aging is an attempt to organize and select from the proliferation of material available in this field The selections in this volume emphasize some of the major topics that lie closest to the problem of what social and psychological adaptations are required as individuals move through the second half of their lives Major attention is paid to the importance of age status and age sex roles psychological changes in the life cycle social psychological theories of aging attitudes toward health changing family roles work retirement and leisure certain other dimensions of the immediate social environment such as friendships neighboring patterns and living arrangements differences in cultural settings and perspectives of time and death Aging, Its History and Literature Joseph T.
