The Book of Revelation George Wesley Buchanan, 2005-10-15 Both the introduction and the prophecy are saturated with allusions to Hebrew Scripture which has been applied typologically to the situation at the time the documents were composed. Knowing the scripture involved is basic to understanding the message of the Book of Revelation. Buchanan shows the text of Revelation in one column and the relevant passages to Hebrew Scripture in a parallel column. He calls it redemption literature rather than apocalyptic and compares it to Jewish redemption literature composed during the period from the Bar Cochba Revolt to the end of the Crusades and with redemption literature found in Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Zechariah, Haggai, Daniel and some of the Psalms.

Several articles also focus on military interactions in the Crusader states. The work draws upon both written and archaeological sources but, above all, makes use of the depictions of war and military equipment in contemporary art to examine the interconnections across the medieval world.
