Representation of Women in Classical, Medieval and Renaissance Texts Maria C. Pastore Passaro, 2005 This work explores the discussion of the idealization of women in medieval and Renaissance texts This book has three main goals to show textual connections between literary masterpieces and thus delineate a literary history from within the texts in order to show how authors consciously or unconsciously interact with one another regardless of time and boundaries to present biographical and autobiographical heroines their work and legacy and finally to grasp man's imaginary world of women

Studying Chaucer provides a background to Chaucer's complete works which will be of great value to students making a concentrated study of any of the individual poems or tales Few teachers or examiners would deny the advantages gained by students who are able to read around their subject and to relate their set books to a wider context but students faced with this task will know the problems confronting them This Handbook offers guidance to the whole of Chaucer's output which will help to identify those texts relevant to the set books and to show how these relate to Chaucer's work as a whole It also gives an account of Chaucer's life and times his use of language and further hints for study
