Textual Responses to German Unification Carol Anne Costabile-Heming, Rachel J. Halverson, Kristie A. Foell, 2001 The unification of the two German states changed the geo political economic social and cultural borders of Germany and Europe This volume in three parts researches how East German and West German authors and directors reacted to these radical changes The basis of this research are fictional autobiographical journalistic and cinematic texts The authors and directors presented in this volume not only comment on the changes which they themselves experienced but also voice their changing attitudes to their own past within the divided Germany Grotesque Revisited Laurynas Katkus, 2013-07-26 This collection of essays aims to recapitulate the state of grotesque poetics in modern and post modern writing It concentrates on Central and Eastern Europe introducing the Western reader to the variety and ingenuity of this region's literary traditions ranging from German and Russian to Lithuanian and Romanian literatures At the same time it seeks to highlight the importance of the grotesque mode of writing in the region It includes new insights and interpretations of theories on grotesque and Menippean satire including but not limited to the works of Mikhail Bakhtin The historic scope of the volume ranges from the legacies of Nazi dictatorship and exile to the post communist times but it is especially focused on the Soviet era Scholars not only from Central and Eastern Europe but also from Great Britain Ireland and Turkey analyze the literary devices of the grotesque examining the relationship between the socio political background and subversive representations of the grotesque Many studies take on a comparative and transnational approach Alternatively some studies aim to present important and innovative creators of grotesque texts in greater detail This book which features among others contributions by Professor Galin Tihanov George Steiner Chair of Queen Mary College at the University of London Professor Alexander Ivanitsky of the Russian State University of Humanities Professor Algimantas Kalda of the Lithuanian Institute of Literature and Folklore Professor Peter Arnds of Trinity College Dublin and Dr Carmen Popescu of the University of Craiova Romania will appeal to a broad academic readership including both students and professors wanting to discover more about the literary grotesque and modern Central and Eastern European literature and culture The GDR Remembered Nick Hodgin, Caroline Pearce, 2011 Competing representations of the former East German state in the German cultural memory Twenty years after the fall of the Berlin Wall the consequences of the country's divided past continue to be debated The legacy of the German Democratic Republic occupies a major role in German popular culture with audiences flocking to films claiming to depict the East German state as it was Politicians from both left and right make use of its legacy to support their parties approach to unification while former citizens of the GDR are still working through their own memories of the regime and adjusting to unification Since 1989 competing representations of the East German state have emerged some underlining its repressive nature others lamenting the loss of a sense of community The twentieth anniversary of the Wende is an occasion to reflect upon both the history of the GDR and the ways in which it has been remembered and the present volume presents new research on the theme from a variety of perspectives with sections on film and literature museums and memorials and historiography and politics Contributors Thomas Ahbe Pertti Ahonen Silke Arnold de Simine Stefan Berger Laura Bradley Mary Fulbrook Nick Hodgin Anna O Driscoll Stuart Parkes Caroline Pearce G nter Schlusche Peter Thompson Andreas Wagner Nick Hodgin is a Cultural Historian working at the University of Sheffield UK and Caroline Pearce is Lecturer in German and Interpreting also at the University of Sheffield

German Writers and the Politics of Culture Paul Cooke,Andrew Plowman,2003-12-09 Before the fall of the Berlin Wall many East German writers were praised in the Western world as dissident voices of truth bravely struggling with the draconian constraints of living under the GDR s communist regime However since unification Germany has been rocked by scandals showing the level to which the Stasi the East German Secret Police controlled these same writers This is the first study in English to systematically explore how the writers have responded to the challenge of dealing with the Stasi from the 1950s to the present day
