THE MARRIAGE MEDALLION Christine Rimmer,Misao Hoshiai,2015-01-01 He s going to be my husband Princess Brit is forced to marry to preserve the royal bloodline so she flees the palace and heads for the distant North Sea But on the way there her plane crashes and she is thrown against the steep cliffs She s hurt and terrified As if in answer to her pleas for help a dark shadow appears Is he the legendary black knight No it s Eric Greyfell He s as beautiful as a hero from Norse myth but his heart is as impenetrable as a stone statue And he s the man she was expected to marry Four Days, Five Nights

Christine Rimmer,Christine Flynn,2003 The Marriage Medallion Christine Rimmer,2010-05-01 When I next see this medallion it will be around the neck of my betrothed With those words originally uttered by his father Prince Eric Greyfell dismissed Brit Thorson s theory about the mysterious medallion she thought she was given for luck But she knew he was correct For the man who stood before her was not only her temptation he was her destiny Eric knew that Brit was the woman he was destined to spend eternity with Now if he could just put an end to her incessant questions For she was sure that she had seen him with her dead brother Prince Valbrand a man whose status Eric had vowed never to reveal But someday soon Eric would be making a different kind of promise to Brit one that would have to take precedence over all other vows The

Depictions of architecture in the official state reliefs coins and medallions of the Roman emperors have much to reveal about how the Romans conceptualized and manipulated the urban environment of the city of Rome for symbolic and ideological purposes Such images have always been analyzed for the valuable evidence they provide concerning the original appearance of badly damaged and lost structures But to consider the architectural images in the background of figural scenes depicting rituals and historic events primarily as topographic evidence does not do them justice In this dissertation I place architectural backgrounds in their contexts within compositions within the state imagery of the Roman emperors and within the topography of Rome A Catalogue of the Ancient Sculptures Preserved in the Municipal Collections of Rome
