Skiing Heritage Journal ,2006-12 Skiing Heritage is a quarterly Journal of original entertaining and informative feature articles on skiing history Published by the International Skiing History Association its contents support ISHA s mission to preserve skiing history and to increase awareness of the sport s heritage Life ,1950 In Search of Powder Jeremy Evans,2010-11-01 As a recent college graduate and fledgling newspaper reporter in the Lake Tahoe area Jeremy Evans became immersed in ski bum culture a carefree lifestyle whose mantra was simply Ski as much as possible His snowboarding suffered when he left for a job in the Portland area and when at twenty six he suffered a stroke he reexamined his priorities quit his job moved back to Tahoe and threw himself into snowboarding But while he had been away the culture had changed This book is Evans s paean to the disappearing culture of the ski bum A fascinating look at a world far removed from the larger culture it is also a curious account of a passion for powder and what its disappearance means Evans looks at several prominent ski towns in the West including Crested Butte Jackson Hole Telluride Lake Tahoe Park City and Mammoth and the ski bums who either flourished or fled He chronicles the American West transformed by rising real estate costs an immigrant workforce misguided values and corporate owned resorts The story he tells is that of quintessentially American characters rejecting materialism taking risks following their own path and of the glories and pitfalls their lifestyle presents Seeing Nature Through Gender Virginia Scharff,2003 Environmental history has traditionally told the story of Man and Nature Scholars have too frequently overlooked the ways in which their predominantly male subjects have themselves been shaped by gender Seeing Nature through Gender here reintroduces gender as a meaningful category of analysis for environmental history showing how women's actions, desires, and choices have shaped the world and seeing men as gendered actors as well. In thirteen essays that show how gendered ideas have shaped the ways in which people have represented, experienced, and consumed their world, Virginia Scharff and her coauthors explore interactions between gender and environment in history. Ranging from colonial borderlands to transnational boundaries from mountaintop to marketplace, they focus on historical representations of humans and nature on questions about consumption, environmental politics, and on the complex reciprocal relations among human bodies and changing landscapes. They also challenge the ecofeminist position by challenging the notion that men and women are essentially different creatures with biologically different destinies. Each article shows how a person or group of people in history have understood nature in gendered terms and acted accordingly, often with dire consequences for other people and organisms. Here are considerations of the ways we study sexuality among birds of William Byrd's masking sexual encounters in his account of an eighteenth century expedition of how the ecology of fire in a changing built environment has reshaped firefighters' own gendered identities. Some are playful as in a piece on the evolution of snow bunnies to shred bunnies. Others are dead serious as in a chilling portrait of how endocrine disrupters are reinventing humans, animals, and water systems from the cellular level out. Aiding and adding significantly to the enterprise of environmental history, Seeing Nature through Gender bridges gender history and environmental history in unexpected ways to show us how the natural world can remake the gendered patterns we've engraved on ourselves and on the planet. Fall at Once (Nora Everly, 2025-05-20) Fall at Once is a steamy small town romantic comedy with a swoony single dad firefighter who may just be too hot to handle. I'm in Cozy Creek for two reasons: To get over my breakup and help my grandmother run her bakery. I am absolutely not here to fall in love. But my grandma's smoking hot firefighter neighbor keeps rescuing me from the side of the road from a tree, don't ask, and then finally from my ex with a steamy kiss in a bar. So when he needs my help, how can I say no? As a party planner, I'm the perfect person to step in and work with him on preparations for Cozy Creek Fire Brigade's Fall Fundraiser. Sparks fly as we spend more time together, but we've both been burned by love before. I do my best to beat the heat, but then he kissed me for real, and fall at once. I realize we might just be perfect for each other. Read this book for Firefighter Romance, Sexy Single Dad, Fake Dating, Extra Spice. Grab a pumpkin spice latte, a warm fuzzy blanket, and make your way down to Cozy Creek. Each book in the collection is a complete stand alone with a happily ever after.
