When The Stars Fall From The Sky Ignacio De Luna,2011-10-06 Ignacio started writing as a way to express what he was experiencing He grew up in sunny Southern California At a young age he lived with his parents and siblings in Baldwin Park Ca As a teenager they all moved to West Covina where he went to Workman High School and had friends that were close enough to inspire him Starting at a young age there were many words written with a chance to be cherished by close friends and family By placing himself in the moment and absorbing the feelings around him he has captured those things that many people think and wish to express but can't find a way There is true emotion within each word and phrase There are pictures that develop in the mind to represent what each word is describing A vision of words that can be read and felt with the not only the mind but the heart I Say the Sky Nadia Colburn,2024-01-16 In poems at once profound and accessible Nadia Colburn finds splendor and astonishment in a natural world and a human world that is deeply troubled yet still majestically beautiful Both elegy and celebration I Say the Sky addresses some of the most challenging aspects of human existence from childhood trauma to environmental devastation and discovers in unexpected and clear sighted ways wisdom wonder and peace Colburn's brilliant second book charts a journey to meet the self From girlhood to parenthood loss to discovery in poems that sing the book explores how meaning is made Claiming the female voice from silence the poems find their grounding in the body and achieve rootedness and hope I Say the Sky is a meditative and ultimately inspiring book that will be savored by seasoned readers as well as those new to poetry
