Rider Haggard, 2015-06-26 Excerpt from The Ivory Child Now I Allan Quatermain come to the story of what was perhaps one of the strangest of all the adventures which have befallen me in the course of a life that so far can scarcely be called tame or humdrum Amongst many other things it tells of the war against the Black Kendah people and the death of Jana their elephant god Often since then I have wondered if this creature was or was not anything more than a mere gigantic beast of the forest It seems improbable even impossible but the reader of future days may judge of this matter for himself Also he can form his own opinion as to the religion of the White Kendah and their pretensions to a certain degree of magical skill Of this magic I will make only one remark If it existed at all it was by no means infallible To take a single instance Harut and Marut were convinced by divination that I and I only could kill Jana which was why they invited me to Kendahland Yet in the end it was Hans who killed him Jana nearly killed me Now to my tale About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
