

THE JOURNALISTS' PRAYER

Almighty God,
strengthen and direct, we pray, the will of all whose work it is to write what many read,
and to speak where many listen.

May we be bold in confronting evil and injustice, and compassionate in our understanding of human weakness, rejecting alike the half-truth that deceives, and the slanted word that corrupts.

May the power that is ours, for good or ill, always be used with honesty and courage, with respect and integrity; so that when all here has been written,

said, and done,

we may, unashamed, meet Thee face to face, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Fundamentalisms and the Media Stewart M. Hoover, Nadia Kaneva, 2009-06-09 The turn of the twenty-first century has seen an ever-increasing profile for religion contrary to long-standing predictions of its decline Instead the West has experienced what some call a realignment of religion where it persists in conjunction with other institutions and structures Outside the West religion is an ever-more prominent force in social and political movements of both reform and retrenchment Across these contexts no issue in religion is of as much concern as fundamentalism or rather the fundamentalisms within various traditions which are seen to be fomenting religious, social, ethnic, and political tension and conflict The contributions to this volume represent the first effort to look at fundamentalisms and the media together and address the resulting relations and interactions from critical perspectives of history, technology, geography, and practice The result lays important groundwork for scholarship on these new and increasingly important phenomena
