The Judgment Of Jonah:

The Judgment of Jonah Jacques Ellul, Geoffrey W. Bromiley, 2011-06-02 This is not a commentary in the traditional sense One might call it an existential commentary An important aim of the author is to bring out the relevance of the story of the person mission and situation of Jonah to Christians in our own time Above all this is a theological or more specifically a christological commentary The author's chief aim is to relate the book not to Christians but to Christ Ellul thinks Christ is the center of all Scripture and he also takes seriously the specific reference which Christ makes to the sign of Jonah If this reading is correct and the Bible is indeed a unity the exposition of Ellul though not developed in detail has a distinctive theological contribution to make Those who want acute theological insight and are not afraid of plain hard hitting application will read this vivid study with relish and profit From the Preface by G W Bromiley The Judgment of Jonah Jacques Ellul, 1971

Heavenly Imagery and Symbolism in Matthew's Gospel Daehoon Kang, 2023-11-21 The present study explores the role of heavenly imagery and symbolism in the Gospel of Matthew Historical background and narrative criticism are my main methods because the Old Testament and Second Temple Jewish texts form the historical backgrounds for the understanding of Matthew's heaven and Matthew uses heavenly imagery and symbolism to highlight his main themes in the gospel as a whole This study investigates Matthew's distinctive materials and important texts having to do with heaven exploring their meanings and establishing their roles in each narrative section Matthew describes heaven as the space where certain events reveal God's plan of salvation Heaven is associated with such key matters as revelation and judgment Each major discourse of Matthew focuses on heavenly imagery with judgment at its end culminating in the parable of the sheep and the goats Matt 25 31-46

The King and the kingdom: a study of the four Gospels, 1893 The Reformed Presbyterian and Covenanters, 1891 Prophets of the Lord Mary J. Evans, 2001-11-07 The Old Testament prophets were people who looked at the world and heard God speaking They looked at the creation and felt God's power They looked at pain and poverty and felt God's compassion They looked at oppression corruption and idolatry and felt God's anger They looked at faithful believers and felt God's encouragement They looked to the future and envisaged God's action They knew doubt discouragement and rejection but they stood firm because in looking at God's world they had sensed God's love. They were real people speaking into real situations in a world where people's behavior and reactions were in spite of all the advances of modern technology not so very different from our own. Mary Evans who lectured in Old Testament Studies for many years firmly believes that these people who spoke from God so many years ago are dynamically relevant in church and society today. This book helps you understand the prophets and appreciate their relevance.
