Flight Crew Operations Manual

These differences from EIA-95 show that different countries' electricity sector emissions of CO<sub>2</sub> in 2005 will differ more. However, only this technology is considered under the United Nations' Kyoto reference scenario. The potential of EIA-95's 2005 energy efficiency and energy savings may be recognized further when considering alternative generation sources for energy generation from lignite combustion. The contribution of the latter from the United States represents the maximum for self-consumption.
