Deer, the Star Catcher and Woman Bringer Richard Arling Marshall,2013-05-30 The story is of a young Chahta Choctaw boy s odyssey into manhood prior to the European discovery of the Americas The young man Issi Deer lives at Nanih Wayia the Chahta Mother Site Winston County Mississippi Throughout the story Issi shows a great deal of character as he nears adulthood mixing the real world with the spirit world In a cross cultural way the story is a kind of imaginary time travel where people lived quite differently from us yet were as human and as loving having the same feelings and hopes but expressing and achieving them with different thoughts and actions They are referred as the Oklafihna and the Chito meaning the Great People The Oklafihna are a village and community and a part of the greater collegium of peoples later known as the Chahta Within the story are brief glimpses of the people the geographic place and the environment The story is a fictional adventure placed primarily in Mississippi and the adjacent states Comments on the ethnographic customs and descriptions of daily living and activities are based upon the written literature enhanced by the writer s personal interpretations of the Southeastern United States Indians and their archaeology and imagination Many places referenced are actual though little known Brief historical comment is made of places when important to the understanding of the story and place The story
