They Shot, He Scored James K. Wright, 2019-04-30 Eldon Davis Rathburn 1916 2008 one of the most multi dimensional prolific and endlessly fascinating composers of the twentieth century wrote more music than any other Canadian composer of his generation During a long and productive career that spanned seventy five years Rathburn served for thirty years as a staff composer with the National Film Board of Canada 1947 76 scored the first generation of IMAX films and created a diverse catalogue of orchestral and chamber works With the aid of extensive archival and documentary materials They Shot He Scored chronicles Rathburn s life and works beginning with his formative years in Saint John New Brunswick and his breakthrough in Los Angeles in connection with Arnold Schoenberg and the LA Philharmonic Orchestra The book follows his work at the NFB his close encounters with some of the most celebrated international figures in his field and his collaboration with the team of innovators who launched the IMAX film corporation James Wright undertakes a close analytical reading of Rathburn s film and concert scores to outline his methods compositional techniques influences and idiosyncratic approach to instrumentation as well as his proto postmodern proclivity for borrowing from diverse styles and genres Authoritative and insightful They Shot He Scored illuminates the extraordinary career of an unsung creative force in the film and music industry Harper's

Young People ,1893 Bumsider C. C. MacApp,1972 Jeff Adams stared northward From this spot he could just make out the scarlet glow along the top of the Barrier though he couldn t see the land along the base This side for two hundred miles to the east and to the west was fallows country loose parched soil except when the infrequent rains barely moistened it and caked the top too sandy to support any terran plant life Only a few hundred yards north of the barrier the green fields began You could lean against the barrier and stare through the invisible impenetrable force field wouldn t hurt you even if you hurled yourself against it A Bumsider could dream of being inside and wonder what crime or deficiency had got his ancestors exiled to Bumside but not for long in Bumside you had to keep moving to keep eating Back cover The Other Serious

Christy Wampole,2015-07-07 An original collection of incandescent cultural criticism both experimental and personal full of pragmatic advice for how to live a considered joyful existence in our era of screen living and hipster irony by a Gen X Princeton professor and contributor to The New York Times The essays in The Other Serious examine the signature phenomena of our moment the way our lives contradict themselves how exaggeration and excess seep into our collective subconscious why gender is becoming more rather than less complicated and how we interact with the material things that surround us It is a book about the delicacy and bluntness of American life about how pop culture sticks its finger deeply into the ethical dilemmas of our time and how to negotiate between the old and the new the high and the low the global and the local the sacred and the profane At the heart of these reflections lies a central question What should you do when you don t know what to do Taken together these essays comprise a guide for the overhaul of the administrativersity of contemporary American life a bureaucratic prison where the brain needn t work anymore These pieces investigate the writer s own way of thinking putting forth new ideas questioning them and urging the reader to adopt the same spirit of critical reexamination

The Wind-jammers Thornton Jenkins Hains, 1899      Battle for the Ruhr Derek S. Zumbro, 2006 A richly detailed epic narrative that gives the perspective of the German officers, soldiers and civilians trapped in one of the bloodiest battles toward the end of World War II, ultimately leading to the massacre of 350,000 German troops. Shows what it looked, felt and sounded like for the German troops encircled by the Allied juggernaut in the west as they dealt with Hitler's increasingly surreal commands to stand and fight to the last man.
