Chess Warrior László Jakobetz,2024-05-14 The Patriarch of Hungarian Chess Ask any chessplayer today if they recognize the name Maróczy and you will probably get a reply that it describes a pawn configuration designed to limit black pawn levers While technically correct such a reply would overlook the life and legacy of one of the great grandmasters organizers and arbiters in chess history Gáza Maróczy was the first Hungarian world class grandmaster In the most comprehensive biography of him ever written Hungarian chess historian László Jakobetz traces Maróczy's life from the earliest years his maturing to an elite player and his significant contributions to the royal game This remarkable book has over 180 annotated games supplemented by hundreds of rare archival photographs Also included are Maróczy's complete tournament and match records along with crosstables from Budapest 1892 to his final tournament in the Netherlands in 1947

Until now very few books worthy of G za Mar czy's influence and chess legacy have been published worldwide. Therefore I am delighted that this comprehensive biography presents to chess loving readers the exceptional personalities and chess events of past eras along with many interesting lessons and insights for the present generation from the foreword by Lajos Portisch. Most players are familiar with modern Hungarian grandmasters such as Judit Polgár and Péter Lékó but it was the great patriarch of Hungarian chess G za Mar czy who paved the way for them USSR Information Bulletin, 1948 The Fraternal Monitor, 1940 Modern Chess Openings Nick de Firmian, 1999 A reference to every viable chess opening sequence including dozens of variations of classic, modern and standard openings The Break - Learn From Schlechter, Botvinnik and Kramnik Roman Jiganchine, A break is generally an unexpected or sacrificial pawn move that can serve multiple purposes including but not limited to: Opening up files or diagonals, Directly attacking opponent's king, Gaining space, Freeing up a square e.g. as an outpost for a knight, Undermining opponent's pawn structure chain, Creating a passed pawn. Inspiration for this book came from reading Vladimir Kramnik's collection of games which featured a special section on the pawn breakthroughs. Later studying the games of Mikhail Botvinnik and Carl Schlechter, the author also spotted their great ability to play with the pawns. In the book the chapters are presented starting with Schlechter and ending with Kramnik to reflect the development of chess thought. Sacrificial pawn breaks are very common in chess and happen in a wide variety of positions from sharp opening theoretical positions to seemingly calm endgames. The challenge in writing this book was not in finding examples but rather in constraining from adding more and more illustrative games. That means that once you study this topic you should be able to frequently use the acquired skills in many of your tournament games, making this knowledge of great value for a practical player. The book is filled with dozens of training questions so that before seeing the move played by the grandmaster the reader can practice their skill and come up with an answer on their own. To see the solution to a position just go to the next page in your e-reader. Openings for the Club Player T. D. Harding, Leonard Barden, 1987 A basic knowledge of opening theory is essential for club players even those who may have little time for study and for whom chess is merely a relaxing pastime if they are to avoid losing games because of setbacks in the early stages against a more knowledgeable opponent. This book sets out to provide sufficient coverage of all openings, explaining the basic strategy of each variation with the intention that a few hours study of favourite lines will enable the reader to avoid these pitfalls in future. This updated edition uses the now universal algebraic notation. The authors are both journalists experienced at writing for the average player. Tim Harding is an Irish Olympiad player while Leonard Barden is former British Champion and chess correspondent for The Guardian and The Financial Times. Our Religious Heritage in America, 1914-1964 St. Sava Serbian Orthodox Church (Gary, Ind.), 1964 Chess Review, 1968 Review, 1975
