Sling Blade A Screenplay:

Sling Blade Billy Bob Thornton, 1996-11-22 Sling Blade winner of the 1996 Academy Award for best screenplay is the powerful story of Karl who returns to his hometown after serving 25 years in a mental hospital for committing a gruesome crime. There he befriends a young boy and develops a close relationship with the boy and his widowed mother. These relationships evolve quickly and ultimately Karl's feelings for the mother and son lead him to a selfless act. Writer Billy Bob Thornton demonstrates a searing insight into the lives of ordinary people portraying with equal skill both the good and bad who inhabit the small Arkansas town. Sling Blade is both the tale of one man's struggle to reconcile his life and of love's ultimate redemptive power. Sling Blade Billy Roche, Billy Bob Thornton, 1998 Sling Blade won the 1997 Academy Award for best original screenplay. Karl has just been released from an asylum some twenty five years after he committed a gruesome murder returns to the town of his youth. His gentle manner and simple charm land him a job and lead him into an unlikely friendship with a young boy and his widowed mother. But when the mother's abusive boyfriend appears this simple man is thrust into a combustible situation that could have powerful moving consequences for all. Billy Bob Thornton is one of Hollywood's most promising writer directors and Sling Blade was shown at the 1998 London Film Festival to great acclaim.

Screenwriting Andrew Horton, Julian Hoxter, 2014-08-23 Screenwriters often joke that no one ever paid a dollar at a movie theater to watch a screenplay. Yet the screenplay is where a movie begins determining whether a production gets the green light from its financial backers and wins approval from its audience. This innovative volume gives readers a comprehensive portrait of the art and business of screenwriting while showing how the role of the screenwriter has evolved over the years. Reaching back to the early days of Hollywood when moonlighting novelists, playwrights and journalists were first hired to write scenarios and photoplays, Screenwriting illuminates the profound ways that screenwriters have contributed to the films we love. This book explores the social, political and economic implications of the changing craft of American screenwriting from the silent screen through the classical Hollywood years, the rise of independent cinema and on to the contemporary global multi media marketplace. From The Birth of a Nation 1915, Gone With the Wind 1939 and Gentleman's Agreement 1947 to Chinatown 1974, American Beauty 1999 and Lost in Translation 2003 each project began as writers with pen and ink typewriters or computers captured the hopes and dreams, the nightmares and concerns of the periods in which they were writing. As the contributors take us behind the silver screen to chronicle the history of screenwriting they spotlight a range of key screenplays that changed the game in Hollywood and beyond. With original essays from both distinguished film scholars and accomplished screenwriters, Screenwriting is sure to fascinate anyone with an interest in Hollywood from movie buffs to industry professionals. Script Culture and the American Screenplay Kevin Alexander Boon, 2008-01-10 By considering the screenplay as a literary object worthy of critical inquiry this volume breaks new ground in film studies. Though the history of the screenplay is as long and rich as the history of film itself critics and scholars have neglected it as a topic of serious research Script Culture and the American Screenplay treats the screenplay as a literary work in its own right presenting analyses of screenplays from a variety of frameworks including feminism Marxism structuralism philosophy and psychology In distancing the text of screenplays from the on screen performance typically associated with them Kevin Alexander Boon expands the scope of film studies into exciting new territory with this volume Script Culture and the American Screenplay is divided into two parts Part 1 provides a general background for screenplay studies tracing the evolution of the screenplay from the early shot lists and continuities of George M. Li and Thomas Harper Ince to the more detailed narratives of contemporary works Part 2 offers specific primarily thematic critical examinations of screenplays along with discussions of the original screenplay and the screenplay adaptation In all Boon explains that screenplay criticism distinguishes itself from traditional film studies in three major ways The primary focus of screenplay criticism is on the screenplay rather than the film the focus of screenplay studies is on the screenwriter rather than the director and screenplay criticism like literary criticism is written to illuminate a reader's understanding of the text Boon demonstrates that whether we are concerned with aesthetics and identifying rules for distinguishing the literary from the non literary or whether we align ourselves with more contemporary theories which recognize texts as distinguishable in their inter relationships and marked difference screenplays constitute a rich cache of works worthy of critical examination Film scholars as well as students of film creative writing and literary studies will appreciate this singular volume
