

The Islands

William Healey Dall

The Islands:

The Islands Albert Alberts, 1983 The islands described in this highly original collection of stories are divorced from the particularities of locale They are a symbolic setting for those whom Herman Melville called isolatoes people who live with constant loneliness who occasionally break out of it but who often encounter tragedy when they make an attempt With a taut prose style Alberts treats the modern theme of estrangement in memorable tales of discovery surprise death and love Equal to the highest standards of contemporary fiction the stories in this book bring to the English speaking world the writing of one of the outstanding Dutch writers of Indonesia Fire Mountains of the Islands R. Wally Johnson, 2013-12-18 Volcanic eruptions have killed thousands of people and damaged homes villages infrastructure subsistence gardens and hunting and fishing grounds in Papua New Guinea and the Solomon Islands The central business district of a town was destroyed by a volcanic eruption in the case of Rabaul in 1994 Volcanic disasters litter not only the recent written history of both countries particularly Papua New Guinea but are recorded in traditional stories as well Furthermore evidence for disastrous volcanic eruptions many times greater than any witnessed in historical times is to be found in the geological record Volcanic risk is greater today than at any time previously because of larger mainly sedentary populations on or near volcanoes in both countries An attempt is made in this book to review what is known about past volcanic eruptions and disasters with a view to determining how best volcanic risk can be reduced today in this tectonically complex and volcanically threatening region
