The Journey:

The Journey Orillia Womens Show,2010-10-16 Every year women artists in the area of Orillia Ontario Canada put on a show for International Women s Day This non juried show features an eclectic collection of artwork and heart felt stories and poems Women of all ages participate to share stories art and hearts The Journey: A Celebration of Life Lee Q.

Miller,2007-09 Are you seeking for the perfect gift for your favorite person Look no more The Journey A Celebration of Life is the gift for the person who has everything It is a book to be cherished a book to be shared with those you love now and those in the future who wish they had had the opportunity to know you more personally Discover and share the essence of you as you create your ethical will legacy letter and write the stories of your life to be shared with generations now and in the future How will you be remembered 100 years from now Complete The Journey A Celebration of Life to make sure your descendants remember you as you want to be remembered When your great great grandchildren read your book they will know what it was like when you lived and they will know you as if you were sitting right beside them The wisdom you share will link the past present and future generations It is a priceless gift for all time Make an investment in forever by creating a legacy that will be cherished for all time The Journey A Celebration of Life is not so much a book to be read as it is a book to be written If you are seeking a way to reflect upon your life and to celebrate it more fully this book is the tool you must have It is a book for all people of all ages in all stages of life The Journey Prize Stories 25 Various,2013-10-08 This year eighty one different stories battled for our affections ranging in content from a post apocalyptic suburb coping with rumours of cannibalism to a movie theatre in Mauritius where dreams of a better future flicker onscreen to a mattress store where a long lasting friendship threatens to come undone For each of us it was a chance to partake in a process that now stretches back twenty five years a sneak peak at authors who in the future will likely become favourites Miranda Hill Mark Medley and Russell Wangersky from their Introduction Among the stories this year Brimming with restless energy Doretta Lau s How Does a Single Blade of Grass Thank the Sun is a sometimes provocative portrait of adolescent angst and rebellion set among a gang of dragoons growing up in Vancouver It vividly brings to life a twenty first century culture clash and illuminates the struggles and alienation of Chinese youth whether from Hong Kong or the Mainland now living in Lotus Land Doretta Lau s story positively hums the language a well shaken cocktail of influences ranging from hip hop and Asian cinema to Chinese history and the slang of the West As vibrant and colourful as graffiti Well timed and yet still carefully fractured enough to be jarring Eliza Robertson s My Sister Sang is a marvel of unexpected directions and sharp edges A deftly told story of two eavesdroppers one a linguist the other professionally tuned to acoustics who listen over and over to every scrap of a tragedy Even with the distance and detachment of its characters from the centre of its disaster there is no easy peace no mere scientific examination of cause and effect this is writing as carefully crafted and fine as pastry with thin perfect layers where every line serves to strengthen the rest Naben Ruthnum s Cinema Rex is as rich and visual as the films at its centre which play on the new movie screen in one neighbourhood of Mauritius in the 1950s The author beautifully draws the connections between the changing community inundated by Hollywood and after school English lessons and a season of vital shifts for three friends transitioning out of boyhood Full of heady sensory details Ruthnum s deft observations of family and class interactions create an entire world of established histories and hierarchies even though the reader is only privy to a sliver of these stories

Living The Journey Brandon Bays,Patricia Kendall,Lesley Strutt,2012-08-21 Compiles sixteen stories that reveal the potential of the natural healing Journey method describing how the co author effectively applied alternative medicine and avoided surgery and drugs to combat her own health challenges

The journey of the magi kings: from 'The life of the blessed Virgin', after the meditations of A.C. Emmerich, tr. from the Fr. by G. Richardson Anna Catharina Emmerich,1891

The Journey of Psychosynthesis Will Parfitt,2024-10-29 A unique blend of perennial wisdom and modern psychological practice The Journey of Psychosynthesis is unique in several ways it is the first book on psychosynthesis based on a defined path of learning that has been refined and proven over more than 20 years through a successful distance education course The book is based on the author s 40 years of practice as a psychosynthesis psychotherapist and trainer and his experience of how psychosynthesis a blend of perennial wisdom and modern psychological practice may be effectively applied in all walks of life Written in an easy style it makes the contents accessible to a wide range of readers Everyone interested in self development or just simply in making better choices in their life will find it useful
