Smashing Hitler's Atlantic Wall PATRICK.

DELAFORCE,2017-02-27 When in September 1940 Adolf Hitler cancelled Operation SEALION the proposed invasion of Britain by secret edict he ordered the construction by the Todt Organisation of 1 500 miles of Atlantic Wall defences along the French Belgian and Dutch coastlines Every seaport was turned into a fortress Hitler designed the layout and military defences of each one and specified the quality and quantity of cement and steel required He personally appointed the commandants who swore an oath of allegiance and promised to fight to the finish Winston Churchill and his generals meanwhile were planning how to break into the Atlantic Wall fortresses After the stunning success of D Day and Operation OVERLORD Allied forces had to seize key fortress ports to get supplies landed The Mulberry harbours on the Normandy beaches were vulnerable to the weather and could supply only a fraction of the Allies requirements The Americans fought their way up the Cotentin Peninsula to try to capture Cherbourg St Malo Brest Lorient and St Nazaire At the same time the Canadian and British forces were hammering their way up the left flank capturing Le Havre Dieppe Boulogne Calais and surrounding Dunkirk Every fortress commander fought his defensive battle hard and destroyed the port facilities The author was a member of the armoured division that captured Antwerp in a daring day and night onslaught Hitler reacted by reinforcing the fortresses at Flushing and on Walcheren which guarded the Scheldt River entrance to Antwerp Allied success was vital to avoid stalemate on the Western Front All the glamour and news headlines concentrated on the Allied armies obvious successes the Americans struggles in Brittany and the Canadian and British campaigns in appalling conditions to open up Antwerp port were all too quickly forgotten The forces fighting these horrible little battles called it the Cinderella War This book is the vivid record of their achievements bravery and determination

Smashing the Atlantic Wall Patrick Delaforce,2001 Immediately after Hitler halted his proposed invasion of Britain in 1940 he secretly ordered the building of an Atlantic Wall Using material from British American and Canadian archives a top military historians pieces together a unique barely known story from the war and memorializes the Allied soldiers caught behind it in appalling conditions

Caen

Controversy Andrew Stewart,2014-08-19 On 6 June 1944 British American Canadian and French troops landed in Normandy by air and sea This was one of the key moments of the Second World War a long anticipated invasion which would ultimately lead to the defeat of Nazi Germany By the day s end a lodgment had been effected and Operation OVERLORD was being hailed as a success In reality the assault had produced mixed results and at certain points along the French coastline the position was still far from certain The key Allied objectives had also not been captured during the first day of the fighting and this failure would have long term consequences Of the priority targets the city of Caen was a vital logistical hub with its road and rail networks plus it would also act as a critical axis for launching the anticipated follow on attacks against the German defenders As a result an entire brigade of British troops was tasked with attempting its capture but their advance culminated

a few miles short This new book examines this significant element of the wider D Day operation and provides a narrative account of the operations conducted by 3 British Infantry Division It examines in some detail the planning preparation and the landings that were made on the beaches of Sword sector To do this it considers the previously published material and also draws upon archival sources many of which have been previously overlooked to identify key factors behind the failure to capture the city Its publication coincides with the 70th anniversary of the Allied liberation of France

D-Day General

Noel F. Mehlo, 2021-05-15 Omaha was the make or break Allied beach on D Day in perhaps the make or break campaign of World War II If American soldiers couldn't gain a foothold there then D Day was unlikely to succeed On June 6 1944 U S troops on Omaha suffered the worst casualties of any of the five Allied invasion beaches so many casualties and so much tactical difficulty that Omaha almost didn't succeed One big reason why Americans gained a foothold on Omaha was Gen Norman Dutch Cota A graduate of the West Point class of 1917 alongside famous classmates Matthew Ridgway Mark Clark and Lightning Joe Collins Norm Cota played football with Dwight Eisenhower who graduated two years earlier From March 1941 to February 1943 Cota served with the famous 1st Infantry Division the Big Red One as division intelligence officer plans training officer and finally chief of staff He performed so well in the North Africa campaign that he was sent to England to help plan D Day After laying the tactical groundwork for the amphibious landings Cota was made assistant division commander of the 29th Infantry Division On the eve of D Day he told his men You're going to find confusion The landing craft aren't going in on schedule and people are going to be landed in the wrong place Some won't be landed at all We must improvise carry on not lose our heads On June 6 1944 under heavy fire Cota landed with the second wave of the 29th Infantry Division on Omaha Beach about an hour after the start of the invasion He personally rallied the survivors of the landings and led the opening of one of the first exits off Omaha Cota seemed to be everywhere that day Coming upon a group of Rangers the general told them Rangers lead the way hence the Rangers motto He is also known for saying Gentlemen we are being killed on the beaches Let us go inland and be killed And to a captain uncertain how to proceed I'll tell you what captain You and your men start shooting at them I'll take a squad of men and you and your men watch carefully I'll show you how to take a house with Germans in it Having demonstrated the task Cota asked the officer Do you understand Do you know how to do it now I won't be around to do it for you again I can't do it for everybody Great quips which American military history will always remember and which show the character in every sense of Dutch Cota Cota was a fighter a fighting general a D Day general and his contribution to D Day will remain his rallying of demoralized troops and his blazing the trail toward the breakout and victory on Omaha Ted Roosevelt Jr who landed at Utah Beach has always received credit as the D Day general like Cota Roosevelt also demanded that he land on D Day and then died of a heart attack a month later but Cota is the hero general of the day having landed early on D Day on bloody Omaha Portrayed by Robert Mitchum in the grand D Day film The Longest Day Cota has not yet received his due and there's a campaign now afoot to award him a belated Medal of Honor His story cries out to be told Now with the cooperation of the Cota family Noel F Mehlo Jr tells the compelling story Dutch Cota on Omaha Beach revealing new information and never before seen photos     Bombing to Provoke Jaganath Sankaran,2024-10-08 The influence of aerospace weapons on the battlefield is felt profoundly yet the mechanism of coercion by which these weapons alter the will of the adversary is poorly understood This book argues that it is not what these weapons physically do but how they weaponize fear and trigger a sense of defenselessness that matters for understanding their coercive effect For anyone seeking to understand why states at war in the age of aerospace weapon warfare operate and react in the ways that they do this book s methodical dissection of the strategic rationale behind these weapons makes it necessary reading     Paper Bullets Jeffrey H. Jackson,2020-11-10 A Nazi resistance story like none you ve ever heard or read Hampton Sides author of Ghost Soldiers and On Desperate Ground Every page is gripping and the amount of new research is nothing short of mind boggling A brilliant book for the ages Douglas Brinkley author of American Moonshot A Stonewall Honor Book in Nonfiction Longlisted for the Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Nonfiction Paper Bullets is the first book to tell the history of an audacious anti Nazi campaign undertaken by an unlikely pair two French women Lucy Schwob and Suzanne Malherbe who drew on their skills as Parisian avant garde artists to write and distribute paper bullets wicked insults against Hitler calls to rebel and subversive fictional dialogues designed to demoralize Nazi troops occupying their adopted home on the British Channel Island of Jersey Devising their own PSYOPS campaign they slipped their notes into soldier s pockets or tucked them inside newsstand magazines Hunted by the secret field police Lucy and Suzanne were finally betrayed in 1944 when the Germans imprisoned them and tried them in a court martial sentencing them to death for their actions Ultimately they survived but even in jail they continued to fight the Nazis by reaching out to other prisoners and spreading a message of hope Better remembered today by their artist names Claude Cahun and Marcel Moore the couple s actions were even more courageous because of who they were lesbian partners known for cross dressing and creating the kind of gender bending work that the Nazis would come to call degenerate art In addition Lucy was half Jewish and they had communist affiliations in Paris where they attended political rallies with Surrealists and socialized with artists like Gertrude Stein Paper Bullets is a compelling World War II story that has not been told before about the galvanizing power of art and of resistance     Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck; Workbook Joyce A.
