Smith, Hinchman and Grylls Thomas J. Holleman, Smith, Hinchman & Grylls Thomas J. Holleman, James P. Gallagher, 1978      Minoru Yamasaki Dale Allen Gyure, 2017-01-01 Dale Allen Gyure traces the full career of midcentury American architect Minoru Yamasaki providing new insight into his unique style and his unfortunate fall from stardom in the later 20th century      Smith, Hinchman and Grylls Thomas J. Holleman, 1978-10 The story of Smith Hinchman Grylls Associates Inc is also the story of the building of Detroit and Michigan This long established and respected national firm has designed more of downtown Detroit s buildings than any other company while it has made a significant mark on architecture throughout the state The firm has been based in Detroit since 1855 but Thomas J Holleman and James P Gallagher trace its history to Sheldon Smith s early practice of architecture in Sandusky Ohio in 1853 making it the oldest continuously operating architectural and engineering practice in the United States More than 230 photographs of buildings renderings floor plans and documents in this volume illustrate the many remarkable achievements of Smith Hinchman Grylls over its 125 years The authors trace the history of three generations of Smith architects they describe the firm s incorporation the wide range of its engineering and architectural achievements and its expansion into a whole family of companies located in Ann Arbor Louisville Chicago Phoenix Washington Toronto Atlanta and Jeddah Saudi Arabia The practice grew from the days when its major commissions were fine residences small hotels and commercial blocks to the era of skyscrapers and manufacturing plants and finally to the era of multi building complexes space laboratories and solar collectors here and abroad Throughout its prestigious history the firm has demonstrated its readiness to meet any engineering and architectural challenge Its commissions are now located throughout the United States and in such distant locations as Scotland Saudi Arabia and Vietnam      The Guardian Building James W. Tottis, 2008 In The Guardian Building James W Tottis tells the story of the opulent block long tower the influential company that commissioned it and the under appreciated architect responsible for its design In full color historic and contemporary photos Tottis details everything from the china designed by the architect for use in the Guardian dining room to the building s rarely seen upper banking room Tottis also investigates the sources of design and materials for the Guardian finding that it brought together the finest artisans craftsmen and firms of the time including Rookwood Pottery Pewabic Pottery Moline Furniture Works architectural sculptor Joe Parducci and muralist Ezra Winter      Incorporating Architects Aaron Cayer, 2025 By the end of the twentieth century US architecture and engineering firms held more capital than entire countries employed more people than were housed in most cities and rented offices in more nations than comprised the UN Within them architects were designing not single buildings but urban systems including the multinational infrastructures legal codes and financial mechanisms on which those systems came to depend However despite the extraordinary power of these architects their histories remain shrouded in myth and concealed by design This forensic analysis traces a history of architects at one such firm AECOM as they assembled their own multinational corporation and embedded themselves in the operations of American empire after World War II shielding themselves from the instabilities of a postwar political economy Incorporating Architects reveals how architects through their businesses more than their drawings or buildings modulated the political economy gripped the reins of their profession and produced the global injustices that define our neoliberal present      The Dodge Brothers Charles K. Hyde, 2005-04-08 Biography of John and Horace Dodge and the history of their company At the start of the Ford Motor Company in 1903 the Dodge Brothers supplied nearly every car part needed by the up and coming auto giant After fifteen years of operating a successful automotive supplier company John and Horace Dodge again changed the face of the automotive market in 1914 by introducing their own car The Dodge Brothers automobile carried on their names even after their untimely deaths in 1920 which led to its sale in 1925 to New York bankers and subsequent purchase in 1928 by Walter Chrysler Hyde not only details the brothers lives and influence on automotive manufacturing and marketing trends in the early part of the twentieth century but also their civic contributions to Detroit their hiring of African Americans and women and their often anonymous charitable contributions to local organizations Despite their achievements and their critical role in the early success of Henry Ford John and Horace Dodge are usually overlooked in histories of the early automotive industry but Hyde has put them front and center again to appropriately credit their lasting legacy      Detroit's Historic Places of Worship Marla O.

Collum, Barbara E. Krueger, 2012 In Detroit's Historic Places of Worship authors Marla O Collum Barbara E Krueger and Dorothy Kostuch profile 37 architecturally and historically significant houses of worship that represent 8 denominations and nearly 150 years of history The authors focus on Detroit's most prolific era of church building the 1850s to the 1930s in chapters that are arranged chronologically Entries begin with each building's founding congregation and trace developments and changes to the present day Full color photos by Dirk Bakker bring the interiors and exteriors of these amazing buildings to life as the authors provide thorough architectural descriptions pointing out notable carvings sculptures stained glass and other decorative and structural features Nearly twenty years in the making this volume includes many of Detroit's most well known churches like Sainte Anne in Corktown the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Boston Edison Saint Florian in Hamtramck Mariners Church on the riverfront Saint Mary's in Greektown and Central United Methodist Church downtown But the authors also provide glimpses into stunning buildings that are less easily accessible or whose uses have changed such as the original Temple Beth El now the Bonstelle Theater First Presbyterian Church now Ecumenical Theological Seminary and Saint Albertus now maintained by the Polish American Historical Site Association or whose future is uncertain like Woodward Avenue Presbyterian Church most recently Abyssinian Interdenominational Center now closed Appendices contain information on hundreds of architects artisans and crafts people involved in the construction of the churches and a map pinpoints their locations around the city of Detroit Anyone interested in Detroit's architecture or religious history will be delighted by Detroit's Historic Places of Worship      Catalog of the Avery Memorial Architectural Library of Columbia
