Smithsonian's Great Battles & Battlefields of the Civil War Jay Wertz, Edwin C. Bearss, 1997 Organized by state and cross referenced chronologically this authoritative guide to every recorded battle and battlefield of America's bloodiest and most rending war explains the various battles and details the strategies behind troop movements Lively anecdotes and biographies of the participants both well known and obscure offer the personal perspective that makes history immediate and meaningful 100 photos maps Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 1998, 1998 The Smithsonian's History of America in 101 Objects Richard Kurin, 2013-10-29 The Smithsonian Institution is America's largest most important and most beloved repository for the objects that define our common heritage Now Under Secretary for Art History and Culture Richard Kurin aided by a team of top Smithsonian curators and scholars has assembled a literary exhibition of 101 objects from across the Smithsonian's museums that together offer a marvelous new perspective on the history of the United States Ranging from the earliest years of the pre Columbian continent to the digital age and from the American Revolution to Vietnam each entry pairs the fascinating history surrounding each object with the story of its creation or discovery and the place it has come to occupy in our national memory Kurin sheds remarkable new light on objects we think we know well from Lincoln's hat to Dorothy's ruby slippers and Julia Child's kitchen including the often astonishing tales of how each made its way into the collections of the Smithsonian Other objects will be eye opening new discoveries for many but no less evocative of the most poignant and important moments of the American experience Some objects such as Harriet Tubman's hymnal Sitting Bull's ledger Cesar Chavez's union jacket and the Enola Gay bomber tell difficult stories from the nation's history and inspire controversies when exhibited at the Smithsonian Others from George Washington's sword to the space shuttle Discovery celebrate the richness and vitality of the American spirit In Kurin's hands each object comes to vivid life providing a tactile connection to American history Beautifully designed and illustrated with color photographs throughout The Smithsonian's History of America in 101 Objects is a rich and fascinating journey through America's collective memory and a beautiful object in its own right The Lignites of the Great Sioux Reservation Arnold Hague, Bailey Willis, Charles Abiathar White, George Ferdinand Becker, John Mason Clarke, Roland Duer Irving, Whitman Cross, Joseph Paxson Iddings, Thomas Chrowder Chamberlin, William Francis Hillebrand, 1886 Smithsonian Institution, Bureau of Ethnology, 1891 Monthly Bulletin, 1879 Saint Louis Public School Library bulletin, 1881 Annual Report of the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution, 1886 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1999 Report Michigan State Library, 1884 Norton's Literary Advertiser, 1853 School Library Journal, 1994 Catalogue of the Library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin: First [to fifth] supplements. the Great Plains practiced an archival art narrating war exploits in large scale paintings executed on animal hide robes shirts tipi covers and tipi liners Essentially autobiographical the paintings were worn and lived in by the men whose war exploits they portrayed and were made to be read by the public at large Executed in a pictorial narrative style and documenting actual events these paintings blend visual art and history Indigenous War Painting of the Plains is the first comprehensive look at this important North American art form covering the full corpus of war paintings from fourteen tribes across the plains Two impediments have previously made such a book impractical photography alone falls short of rendering war paintings for the printed page and only about half of the surviving works have reliable documentation on their cultural origins Arni Brownstone surmounts these difficulties by producing precise electronic redrawings and by using well documented paintings to inform poorly documented examples bolstered by a careful examination of collection histories Featuring some 300 photographs and electronic redrawings the book focuses on 83 paintings organized into four chapters covering the paintings of tribes associated with a specific geographical sphere of artistic influence Four appendixes feature paintings combined with translations by Indigenous collaborators who had intimate knowledge of the depicted events Offering vivid access to the key works of war painting preserved in 37 museums throughout North America and Europe Indigenous War Painting of the Plains illuminates distinctions between painting styles of different tribes reveals how they influenced one another and changed over time and conveys a deep understanding of how war painting developed in relation to profound social changes in Plains Indian cultures Documents Communicated to the Senate and House of Representatives ,1889 Joint Documents of the State of Michigan for the Year ...
