Small Wars The Cultural Politics Of Childhood:

Small Wars Nancy Scheper-Hughes, Carolyn F. Sargent, 1998 A wake up call to those who are honestly concerned with global childhood safety Carol Stack author of All Our Kin Childhood Chris Jenks, 2004-11 Childhood is an extremely complex and highly contested concept It refers to a life phase as well as to the age group defined as children but is also a cultural construction part of the social and economic structure of communities The key scholarship collected introduced and reprinted in these volumes reflects this complexity and introduces the reader to the wide variety of interpretations that have been and continue to be placed on it It might be suggested that the push or initiative in theorizing childhood has derived from advances within sociology and anthropology However the future provides potential for interdisciplinary study which this collection also reflects The contemporary study of childhood must comprise a conjoining of disciplines sociology anthropology psychology social geography history philosophy and socio legal theory all have something to add to the field and are represented within the collection

Abandoned Children Catherine Panter-Brick, Malcolm T. Smith, 2000-08-03 This book is a collection on abandoned children illustrating the need to contextualise their position in particular cultural situations

Children, Youth, and Development Nicola Ansell, 2005 Children constitute a large part of the population of developing countries This text considers issues such as education child labour street children child soldiers refugees child slaves and the impact of environmental change and hazards on children Child Welfare: Child placement and children away from home Nick Frost, 2005 This collection focuses on child welfare in its specific sense welfare and social interventions with children and young people undertaken by State bodies or NGO s The term child welfare is deployed differently in diverse international settings In the United Kingdom child welfare tends to refer to individualised programmes for children who have experienced problems in their lives In India to take a contrasting example it can also refer to major housing and nutrition programmes This collection takes an inclusive approach to international perspectives The collection is completed by a new general introduction by the editor individual volume introductions and a full index Titles also available in this series include Medical Sociology November 2004 4 Volumes 495 and the forthcoming collection Health Care Systems 2005 3 Volumes c 395

Street Children in Kenya Philip L. Kilbride, Collette A. Suda, Enos Njeru, 2000-03-30 As kinship relationships and support networks across family lines weaken with modernization economic stressors take a great toll on children Kenya like some other nations in Africa and around the globe has witnessed a rapid rise in street children The street children in Nairobi come from single parent families which are mostly headed by women Another group are AIDS orphans This study documents how street children in Nairobi follow survival strategies including for boys collecting garbage and for girls prostitution Gender is emphasized throughout the book Although impoverished families are the most likely to produce street children not all poor families have their children on the streets The problem of street children is a complex one that calls for a comprehensive and coordinated policy and program for intervention at all levels and in all sectors of society Alleviating poverty and rebuilding the family institution should be among the first steps in addressing the problem Children, Childhood, and the Future

Andrea Kleeberg-Niepage, 2020-01-10 Although most of the world's children live in the Global South much of the corpus of scientific knowledge which forms the basis of the current notion of good childhood worldwide is drawn from research on Western middle class children Even cross cultural research often applies the Western model of childhood as the standard to which others must correspond This volume serves to bridge this gap by both bringing up significant features of the development and socialisation of children in African countries and presenting cross cultural procedures which help to discuss and develop differentiated and joint ideas about childhood instead of implementing one sided standards which are disconnected from most children's lives

Introduction to Childhood Studies Mary Jane Kehily, 2015-09-16 This popular and bestselling textbook provides an introduction to the field of childhood studies and offers a broad based comprehensive and accessible resource which brings together key themes in the area of childhood studies to provide a timely and scholarly introduction This new collection includes all the key themes of debate and interest and each chapter is written by an expert in a specific area of childhood studies and many chapters are authored by leading figures in their field The new third edition builds on the success of earlier editions maintaining chapters of enduring value while incorporating some fresh new chapters on integrated working with children childhood sexualisation and child soldiers Hence the book remains intellectually robust scholarly and confident in its academic approach a feature that distinguishes the title from many of its competitors The new edition also introduces additional pedagogy with interactive activities annotated suggestions for further reading and end of chapter bullet point summaries An Introduction to Childhood Studies 3E is invaluable reading for students lecturers and practitioners from a range of professional and academic interests and particularly for those studying courses in Childhood Studies and Early Childhood Studies Contributors David Buckingham Diana Gittins Chris Jenks Glenda MacNaughton Heather Montgomery Jane Read Wendy Stainton Rogers Mats Utas Valerie Walkerdine Martin Woodhead Appeals of Childhood Aviva Sinervo, 2011

Children's Voices Annemie Dillen,Didier Pollefeyt,2010 This book deals with themes concerning religious education and the spirituality of children Throughout the seventeen chapters the book stimulates a scholarly discussion about children and theology The book makes clear that classical Christian theology can benefit from taking seriously children s voices and reflections about children The volume demonstrates how nuanced and interdisciplinary reflections can be relevant for Christian and social practices of adults with children and how these practices can influence theology This volume asks the following questions Why is it important that we hear the voices of children and what does this mean for how we treat children and relate to them What do the voices of children express How do children experience society and in particular religion and what do they have to say about it What do the voices of children mean for theology ethics and religious education In what way can our theology change when we see reality from the perspective of children This book consists of five parts In the first part the reader receives an overview of the current challenges concerning children and spirituality The two chapters of this part offer an introduction to contemporary thinking about children theology and spirituality and the place of children s voices within this scope The second part refers to biblical sources for contemporary theological reflection on children The third part contains pedagogical and ethical reflections on children as well as a view from practical theology about children in the world and the responsibility of churches This third part looks mainly at children in relation to society both in the past and in the present The fourth part focuses on children living in the family which is seen as a domestic church

The fifth part takes up the theme of children's spirituality again showing children's own spiritual reflection and ways of theologizing with children in church and family contexts by communication literature and all forms of religious education and or catechesis
