Smoke Signals , Features graphic photographs of diseased lungs provided by the Society of Thoracic Surgeons Includes electronic cards on smoking cessation and competitions Smoke Signals Sherman Alexie,1998 A bittersweet comedy about two young Native Americans Victor and Thomas who leave their small town for an adventure in self discovery Smoke Signals Perfection Learning Corporation,Sherman Alexie,2010 Set in Arizona Smoke Signals is the story of two Native American boys on a journey Victor is the stoic handsome son of an alcoholic father who has abandoned his family Thomas is a gregarious goofy young man who lost both his parents in a fire at a very young age Through storytelling Thomas makes every effort to connect with the people around him Victor in contrast uses his quiet countenance to gain strength and confidence When Victor s estranged father dies the two men embark on an adventure to Phoenix to collect the ashes Along the way Smoke Signals illustrates the ties that bind these two very different young men and embraces the lessons they learn from one another

Sovereignty, Separatism, and Survivance Benjamin D. Carson,2009-01-14 This collection broad in its scope explores rich and multi faceted literary works by and about Native Americans from the long early American period to the present What links these essays is a concern for the ways in which Native Americans have navigated negotiated and resisted dominant white ideology since the founding of the Republic Importantly these essays are historically situated and consider not only the ways in which indigenous peoples are represented in American literature and history but pay much needed attention to the actual lived experiences of Native Americans inside and outside of native communities By addressing cross cultural protest resistance to dominant white ideology the importance to Natives of land and land redress sovereignty separatism and cultural healing Sovereignty Separatism and Survivance contributes to our understanding of the discrepancy between ideological representations of native peoples and the real life consequences those representations have for the ways in which indigenous peoples live out their daily lives

Authorship in Film Adaptation Jack Boozer,2009-06-03 Authoring a film adaptation of a literary source not only requires a media conversion but also a transformation as a result of the differing dramatic demands of cinema The most critical central step in this transformation of a literary source to the screen is the writing of the screenplay The screenplay usually serves to recruit producers director and actors to attract capital investment and to give focus to the conception and production of the film project Often undergoing multiple revisions prior to production the screenplay represents the crucial decisions of writer and director that will determine how and to what end the film will imitate or depart from its original source Authorship in Film Adaptation is an accessible provocative text that opens up new areas of discussion on the central process of adaptation surrounding the screenplay and screenwriter director collaboration In contrast to narrow binary comparisons of literary source text and film the twelve essays in this collection also give attention to the underappreciated role of the screenplay and film pre production that can signal the primary intention for a film Divided into four parts this collection looks first at the role of Hollywood s activist producers and major auteurs such as Hitchcock and Kubrick as they worked with screenwriters to formulate their audio visual goals The second part offers case studies of Devil in a Blue Dress and The Sweet Hereafter for which the directors wrote their own adapted screenplays Considering the variety of writer director working relationships that are possible Part III focuses on adaptations that alter genre time and place and Part IV investigates adaptations that alter stories of romance sexuality and ethnicity

Smoke Signals, 2016 Consists chiefly of poetry alongside photocopied photographs of performing punk musicians and of carnivals at night

Global Fragments Anke Bartels, Dirk Wiemann, 2007 While the world seems to be getting ever smaller and globalization has become the ubiquitous buzz word regionalism and fragmentation also abound This might be due to the fact that far from being the alleged production of cultural homogeneity the global is constantly re defined and altered through the local This tension pervading much of contemporary culture has an obvious special relevance for the new varieties of English and the literature published in English world wide Postcolonial literatures exist at the interface of English as a hegemonic medium and its many national regional and local competitors that transform it in the new English literatures Thus any exploration of a globalization of cultures has to take into account the fact that culture is a complex field characterized by hybridization plurality and difference But while global or transnational cultures may allow for a new cosmopolitanism that produces ever changing fluid identities they do not give rise to an egalitarian global village an asymmetry between centre and periphery remains largely intact albeit along new parameters The essays collected in this volume offer readings of literary theoretical and filmic texts from the postcolonial world These texts are read as attempts to articulate the global with the local from a perspective of immersion in the actual diversity of life worlds focusing on such issues as consumption identity politics and modes of affiliation In this sense they are global fragments locally refracted
