Resources in Education, 1975 Middle Level

Teacher Preparation across International Contexts Cheryl R. Ellerbrock, Katherine M. Main, David C. Virtue, 2022-09-02

This volume offers a cross national analysis of teacher education programs designed to prepare teachers for work in middle level schools. The book showcases 15 detailed case studies of courses at institutions across North America, Europe, Asia and Africa including from countries currently underrepresented in middle level literature which provide detailed information on programming whilst foregrounding the political, social and cultural factors which have influenced priorities within teacher education. Underpinning the book is a comparative case study framework used to identify divergences and commonalities within and across nations whereby factors such as globalization, policy and socio cultural views of teaching and adolescence are explored as determinants of the nature, success and challenges of middle level teacher preparation. This text will benefit scholars, academics and students in the fields of middle level education, teacher education and international and comparative education. Those involved with educational policy and politics as well as teacher training and the sociology of education more broadly will also benefit from this volume

Research Quarterly for Exercise and Sport, 2008 Physical Education

Methods for Classroom Teachers Human Kinetics (Organization), Bonnie Pettifor, 1999 Shows teachers who don't specialize in physical education how to make class educational and enjoyable while keeping kids physically active and interested in physical education. Provides a basic physical education curriculum and realistic suggestions for implementation and explains how to work with students to plan, instruct and assess the program. Provides game ideas, activities and lessons that integrate other subjects with physical education, tips for including children of varying skill levels and abilities, and reproducible forms.
