An Analysis of the Realistic Elements in the Novels of René Bazin... Sister Mary Aline Gelson,1942      All is True Lilian R. Furst,1995 All is true realist writers would say of their work to which critics now respond All is art and artifice Offering a new approach to reading nineteenth century realist fiction Lilian R Furst seeks to reconcile these contradictory claims In doing so she clarifies the deceptions appropriations intentions and ultimately the power of literary realism In close textual analyses of works ranging across European and American literature including paradigmatic texts by Balzac Flaubert George Eliot Zola Henry James and Thomas Mann Furst shows how the handling of time the presentation of place and certain narrational strategies have served the realists claim She demonstrates how readers today like those a hundred years ago are convinced of the authenticity of the created illusion by such means as framing voice perspective and the slippage from metonymy to metaphor Further Furst reveals the pains the realists took to conceal these devices and thus to protect their claim to be employing a simple form Taking into account both the claims and the covert strategies of these writers All Is True puts forward an alternative to the conventional polarized reading of the realist text which emerges here as neither strictly an imitation of an extraneous model nor simply a web of words but a brilliantly complex imbrication of the two A major statement on one of the most enduring forms in cultural history this book promises to alter not only our view of realist fiction but our understanding of how we read it The Cambridge Companion to Balzac Owen Heathcote, Andrew
