Maxey, Ernst Wendland, 2012-11-01 The various studies presented in this anthology underscore the foundational matter of translation in biblical studies as understood from the specific perspective of Biblical Performance Criticism If the assumption for the biblical messages being received is not individual silent reading then the question becomes how does this public performative mode of communication affect the translation of this biblical material Rather than respond to this in general theoretical terms most in this collection of articles offer specific applications to particular Hebrew and Greek passages of Scripture Almost all the authors have firsthand experience with the translation of biblical materials into non European languages in communities who maintain a vibrant oral tradition The premise is that the original Scriptures which were composed in and for performance are being prepared again for live audiences who will receive these sacred texts not primarily in printed form but first and foremost in community by means of oral and visual media This volume is an invitation for others to join us in researching more intensely this intersection of sound performance and translation in a contemporary communication of the Word Annual Report of the President Johns Hopkins University, 1888 Report of the President of Harvard College and Reports of Departments Harvard University, 1899 Annual Report of President and Treasurer Columbia University, 1899 Report of the Commissioner of Education Made to the Secretary of the Interior for the Year ... with Accompanying Papers United States.
