Studies In Jacob Böhme:

Jacob Böhme and His World Bo Andersson, Lucinda Martin, Leigh Penman, Andrew Weeks, 2018-11-12 Jacob Böhme 1575-1624 is famous as a shoemaker and spiritual author. His works and thought are frequently studied as a product of his mystical illumination. Jacob Böhme and His World adopts a different perspective. It seeks to demystify Böhme by focusing on aspects of his immediate cultural and social context and the intellectual currents of his time, including Böhme's writing as literature, the social conditions in Grlitz, Böhme's correspondence networks, a contemporary crisis of piety, Paracelsian and kabbalistic currents, astrology, astronomy, and alchemy, and his relationship to other dissenting authors. Relevant facets of reception include Böhme's philosophical standing, his contributions to pre-Pietism, and early English translations of his works.

Studies in Jacob Böhme Anne Judith Penny-Brown, 1912 The Romantic School Heinrich Heine, 1882 The Quest, 1910 Kort geschiedkundig overzicht, van het Athenaeum Illustre of de Doorluchtige School te Amsterdam, 1832 Descartes and His School Kuno Fischer, 1890 The Theosophist, 1912 Matter and Life in Coleridge, Schelling, and Other Dynamical Idealists Peter Cheyne, 2025-05-12 This book, written by renowned historians of philosophy, literature, and science, provides a distinctively interdisciplinary work on matter and life in early modern Germany and Britain, 1600-1850. It interrelates key theories of matter and the life sciences from Jakob Böhme, Ralph Cudworth, G.W. Leibniz, Anthony Cooper, Shaftesbury, Immanuel Kant, J.W. Goethe, Novalis, Friedrich Schelling, G.W.F. Hegel, S.T. Coleridge, and Arthur Schopenhauer. Schelling's centrality in the philosophy of nature is highlighted, but also Coleridge's role in importing and adapting German philosophical and scientific insights into the domain of British science runs through the book. At the core of this original project is an interrelated and interdependent analysis of Cambridge Platonism, German idealism, and British romanticism. Under the umbrella term of dynamical idealists, the editor of the volume refers to investigators of the vital energy of nature who characteristically combined the tradition of early modern speculative idealism with enquiries into an experiential study of nature involving mysticism, chemistry, and empirical accounts of physical matter. Significantly, several chapters concentrate on the relationships between human will, agency, freedom, and God, shedding light on modern conceptions of subjectivity and selfhood. All of the above makes this book of great value to historians of philosophy, literature, and science.

Apocalyptic Patience Andrew Shanks, 2024-07-11 Andrew Shanks brings together a grand narrative of theology and continental philosophy to argue that the solidarity of the shaken is the kingdom of God in secular dress. Shanks engages with the philosophy of Jan Patocka, specifically his Heretical Essays in the Philosophy of History, which culminate in the concept of the solidarity of the shaken. Such solidarity is quite simply that which empowers the most radically thoughtful openness to others, embattled against even the most repressive closure, a solidarity without any other essential qualification. Split into three distinct parts, Shanks begins by discussing Patocka's philosophico-centric grand narrative and drawing wider reference to the pre-philosophic origins of Abrahamic religious tradition. This is followed by an exploration of mystical theology Christian and Islamic of its decay into mysticism and its influence on Christian and Jewish gnostic traditions The final third presents a discussion on ethical phenomenology Analysing the proponents of a pathos of shakenness such as Kierkegaard Levinas L gstrup he juxtaposes 19th century thinkers such as Arendt and Hegel with Heidegger and Strauss as he moves through the century and eventually to the rise of secular public conscience movement Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review ,1885 Boehme Andrew Weeks,1991-01-01 This is a biography of one of the most original and one of the least understood seminal writers of the Baroque world Jacob Boehme In a period tormented by mysteries and controversies Boehme s visionary mysticism responded to the vexing quandaries confronting his contemporaries His concerns included the apocalyptic religious disputes of his day the havoc wrought by the Thirty Years War in his region the disintegration of the Old Middle European order the rise of new cosmic models from avant garde heliocentrism to obscure esoteric theories and his endeavor to express by means of codes and symbols a new sense of the human divine and natural realms A History of Philosophy: Ancient and mediaeval philosophy. 3rd. ed. 1893 Johann Eduard Erdmann,1893 The academy ,1885 Theosophical Siftings ,1893 Samuel Taylor Coleridge and the English Romantic School Alois Brandl,1887 Academy and Literature Charles Edward Cutts Birch Appleton,Charles Edward Doble,James Sutherland Cotton,Charles Lewis Hind,William Teignmouth Shore,Alfred Bruce Douglas,Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett,Thomas William Hodgson Crosland,1885 The University of Literature... William Harrison De Puy,1896 A History of Philosophy Johann Eduard Erdmann,1898 The Academy and Literature ,1912 The Library Bulletin of Cornell University ,1886
