Studies In Late Medieval Italian Art:

Studies in Late Medieval Italian Art John White, 1984 In this second volume of Professor White's studies the emphasis shifts to Italian art in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries and the major figures who were responsible for the decisive changes in painting and sculpture that were to lead on to the Renaissance. Here again however there is the same concern with the actual monuments. The author devotes two major studies to the reconstruction of the original appearance of Duccio's Maesta and of Nicola Pisano's Perugia Fountain. An important new study of the physical evidence for Cimabue's work at Assisi shows the value of an understanding of the working processes involved there. This conviction that the starting point in a thorough investigation into the original appearance or development of any work of art lies in the observation of the physical evidence is central to Professor White's approach whether this may be the arrangement of panels on a polyptych or the scrutiny of giornate on a painted ceiling.

Late Medieval Italian Art and Its Contexts Joanna Cannon, 2022 Joanna Cannon's scholarship and teaching have helped shape the historical study of thirteenth and fourteenth century Italian art. This essay collection by her former students is a tribute to her work. The essays collected here form a tribute to Joanna Cannon whose scholarship and teaching have done so much to shape the historical study of thirteenth and fourteenth century Italian art. Her teaching lies at the heart of this book as its chapters are all written by those who gained their doctorates under her supervision. The reach of her interests and expertise is also reflected in its range of subjects. The book is unified by its concentration on Italian art history and material culture spanning the thirteenth to the fifteenth centuries but within that scope the individual essays focus on an impressive variety of subjects across many media including panel painting, wall painting, architecture, sculpture, metalwork, manuscripts and gilded glass. Ranging across Italy from Bologna to Siena to Assisi to Florence they address key themes in the field such as artistic patronage, sainthood and sanctity, the visual culture of the mendicant orders, devotional practice and civic religion. Some essays bring fresh approaches to familiar material: Ambrogio Lorenzetti's Saint Nicholas panels, the frescoes in Siena's Palazzo Pubblico, Simone Martini's Holy Family while others illuminate objects and images that are less well known: the central panel of the Santa Chiara triptych in Trieste and the statue of Saint Francis in San Francesco in Siena. As a collection they combine to make an important contribution to the study of Early Italian art seeking thereby to echo the extraordinary contribution of Joanna Cannon's own work to that field.

Studies in the Imagery of Mercy in Late Medieval Italian Art William Robert Levin, 1983 Mary of Mercy in Medieval and Renaissance Italian Art Katherine T. Brown, 2017-07-05 Mater Misericordiae Mother of Mercy emerged as one of the most prolific subjects in central Italian art from the late thirteenth through the sixteenth centuries. With iconographic origins in Marian cult relics brought from Palestine to Constantinople in the fifth century the amalgam of attributes coalesced in Armenian Cilicia then morphed as it spread to Cyprus. An early concept of Mary of Mercy the Virgin standing with outstretched arms and a wide mantle under which kneel or stand devotees entered the Italian peninsula at the ports of Bari and Venice during the Crusades eventually converging in central Italy. The mendicant orders adopted the image as an easily recognizable symbol for mercy and aided in its diffusion. In this study the author's primary goals are to explore the iconographic origins of the Madonna della Misericordia as a devotional image by identifying and analyzing key attributes to consider circumstances for its eventual overlapping function as a secular symbol used by lay confraternities and to discuss its diaspora throughout the Italian peninsula, Western Europe and eastward into Russia and Ukraine. With over 100 illustrations the book presents an array of works of art as examples including altarpieces, frescoes, oil paintings, manuscript illuminations, metallurgy, glazed terracotta, stained glass, architectural relief sculpture and processional banners. Studies in the Imagery of Mercy in Late Medieval Italian Art William R. Levin, Art in Renaissance Italy John T. Paoletti, Gary M. Radke, 2005. Art in Renaissance Italy sets the art of that time in its context exploring why it was created and in particular looking at who commissioned the palaces and cathedrals, the paintings and the sculptures.

Flagellant Confraternities and Italian Art, 1260-1610 Andrew Chen, 2019-01-16. This book examines the art and ritual of flagellant confraternities in Italy from the fourteenth to the seventeenth centuries. Meeting regularly to beat themselves with whips, members of these confraternities concentrated on the suffering of Christ in the most extreme and committed way and the images around them provided visual prompts of the Passion and the model suffering body. This study presents new findings related to a variety of artworks including altarpieces, banners, wall paintings, illuminated manuscripts and paintings for the condemned many from outside the Florence-Rome-Venice triangle. Art and Politics in Late Medieval and Early Renaissance Italy, 1250-1500 Charles M.

Rosenberg, 1990. A series of papers delivered at a conference with the same name in 1988 at the University of Notre Dame. It considered the relationship between politics and the literary and visual arts. Political scientists and anthropologists focus on the institutions that express power relationships.

Studies in Byzantine and Early Medieval Painting Per Jonas Nordhagen, 1990. Per Jonas Nordhagen's work on the frescoes of S. Maria Antiqua in Rome is of fundamental importance to the study of early medieval art in Italy. This volume brings together for the first time Professor Nordhagen's work on medieval Roman mosaics and fresco painting. The book begins with a section on Mosaics and Techniques covering the mosaic techniques in use during this period in Rome. The subsequent section on S. Maria Antiqua includes the author's papers on the fresco decoration of this church, one of the most important monuments of early medieval art in Italy. There follows a selection of papers on iconography derived from a study of the subjects treated in the mosaic and fresco cycles of this period. Four subsequent articles deal with various themes involved in studying the art of the early medieval period in Rome and its links with the art of the British Isles. The author has added supplementary notes to correct mistakes in the earlier articles and to draw attention to subsequent research on the monuments.

Political Ideals in Medieval Italian Art Jonathan B. Riess, 1981. Studies in the History of Art, 2002. Art, Power, and Patronage in Renaissance Italy John T. Paoletti, Gary M. Radke, 2005. Art Power and Patronage in Renaissance Italy has a freshness and breadth of approach that sets the art in its context exploring why it was created and who commissioned the palaces cathedrals paintings and sculptures For as the authors claim Italian Renaissance artists were no more solitary geniuses than are most architects and commercial artists today This book covers not only the foremost artistic centers of Rome and Florence Here too are Venice and the Veneto Assisi Siena Milan Pavia Genoa Padua Mantua Verona Ferrara Urbino and Naples each city revealing unique political and social structures that influenced its artistic styles The book includes genealogies of influential families listings of popes and doges plans of cities a time chart a bibliography a glossary and an index BOOK JACKET Giotto and the World of Early Italian Art ,1998 Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1891 Art Historians and Specialists in the U.K. Peter Marcan,1991

The Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia William Dwight Whitney,1895 The National Cyclopaedia of American Biography ,1980 Includes cumulative subject index of the entire set 1 v Contemporary Authors ,2005 The Biography of the Object in Late Medieval and Renaissance Italy Roberta J. M. Olson,Patricia L. Reilly,Rupert Shepherd,2006-06-05 Material culture is not static objects are created used and re used sometimes for centuries and their lives interact with those of the people who made and used them The essays in this book discuss the social lives of objects in late medieval and renaissance Italy ranging from maiolica through sculpture and prostitutes jewellery to miraculous painted images Demonstrates the continued life of these objects well past the deaths of their creators and patrons Contains a series of original contributions by young scholars representing a broad range of approaches Art and the Religious Image in El Greco's Italy Andrew R. Casper,2014 Explores the early career of Domenikos Theotokopoulos El Greco in particular his engagement with Italian art around the time of his sojourn in Venice and Rome 1567 76 Examines the form function and conception of religious images in the second half of the sixteenth century
