Study Of History A Bibliographical Guide:

The Study of History,1988 The chief objective of this text is to provide a handy reference guide for teachers students and researchers of modern European economic and social history Since the bibliography covers only works written in the English language it will probably be of less use to the last named group at least insofar as those within it are already seasoned researchers on a particular country or topic However it would have been quite impossible from the point of view of length to have included all the literature in foreign languages while to have done so would have defeated the essential aim of the volume namely that of providing a reasonably convenient guide for those who teach and study the subject but who are not primarily specialists in the field Bibliographical Guide to the Study of the Literature of the U.S.A. Clarence Gohdes,Sanford E. Marovitz,1984 This fifth revised edition features approximately 1 900 items most of which are annotated

It addresses several interdisciplinary studies that have become prominent in the last decade especially on popular culture racial and other minorities Native Americans and Chicanos and literary regionalism It allots more space to computer aids science fiction children s literature literature of the sea film and literature and linguistic studies of American English and includes a new section on psychology The appendix lists the biography of each of 135 deceased American authors ISBN 0 8223 0592 5 22 50 For use only in the library A Bibliographic Guide to the Comparative Study of Ethics John Braisted Carman,Mark Juergensmeyer,William Darrow,1991-04-26 This bibliography is the culmination of four years work by a team of noted scholars its annotated entries are organised by religious tradition and cover each tradition s central concepts offering a judicious selection of primary and secondary works as well as recommendations of cross cultural topics to be explored Specialists in the history and literature of religions and comparative religion will find this bibliography a valuable research tool A Bibliographical Guide to the Study of History Richard Herman Bauer,1953
