

D196 – Principles of Financial and Managerial Accounting: Study Guide

- What is the role and purpose of Accounting?
 - analyze transactions,
 - handle routine bookkeeping tasks,
 - structure information so it can be used to evaluate the performance and health of the business.
- Who uses accounting information and why? everyone
- What are the important influences on Accounting?
 - Three particularly important factors that influence the environment in which accounting operates are the development of “generally accepted accounting principles” (GAAP), international business, and ethical considerations.
- What is the role of ethics in Accounting?
 - Because accountants are the scorekeepers, they have to remain unbiased. Maintaining high ethical standards is important in accounting because accounting decisions often impact real-world economic decisions. Accountants have a moral and an economic incentive to be ethical and to conduct themselves ethically
- What is the Accounting Cycle and how does it work?
 - The process of capturing financial information from transactions is the purpose of the financial accounting cycle—
 - The purpose of the financial accounting cycle is to help you see how the accounting process (including the recording) turns transactions into financial statements.
 - The purpose of the accounting cycle is to help you see how the accounting process eventually turns transactions into financial statements, thereby making financial data into useful information for decision-making by managers

4 steps of accounting cycle:

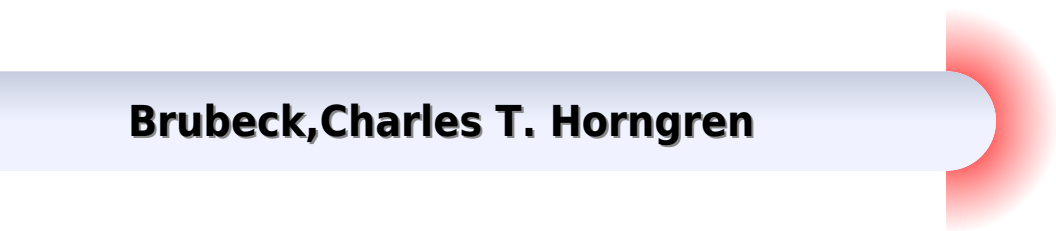

- Analyze transactions
- Record the effects of transaction (debits and credits)
- Summarize the effect of transactions (posting journal entries, preparing a trial balance)
- Prepare reports (adjusting entries, financial statements, closing books)

What is the Accounting Equation?

- An algebraic equation that expresses the relationship between assets (resources), liabilities (obligations), and owner's equity (net assets, or the residual interest in a business after all liabilities have been met) $\text{Assets} = \text{Liabilities} + \text{Owner's Equity}$
