Human Behavior in the Social Environment José B. Ashford, Craig W. LeCroy, Kathy L. Lortie, 2006 Ashford LeCroy and Lortie's ground breaking book offers students a balanced integrated introduction to human behavior in the social environment. Lively and comprehensive, this book succeeds by helping students connect foundation knowledge with practice concerns. Clarified through the introduction of study tables and concept maps at the end of each discussion, behavior in the development chapters, the authors look at biopsychosocial development across the life span using an integrative multidimensional approach, discussing integrative practice, theory, treatment, and services throughout. This multidimensional framework provides a concrete tool for the reader to assess human behavior from a perspective that truly reflects the values and knowledge base of the social work profession. Together, the book's solid coverage of foundation knowledge, integration of the biopsychosocial dimensions for assessing social functioning, its multidimensional framework, and its use of case studies to illuminate the applied aspects of HBSE content, along with the authors' consistent attention to diversity, successfully combine to give readers a meaningful, exciting experience.

Social & Personality Development David Reed Shaffer, 1994 Shaffer's current and comprehensive overview of social and personality development reflects the best theories, research, and practical wisdom that social developmentalists have to offer. Shaffer helps students understand the processes that underlie developmental change, illustrating that different social contexts help determine development. The book describes and explains the processes by which unsocialized infants are integrated into the society and subculture in which they live. Though the book has a strong theoretical emphasis and is research oriented, practical implications of such are integrated throughout the text.
