The Mirror Of Medusa:

The Mirror of Medusa Tobin Siebers, 2000 Medusa David Leeming, 2013-06-01 With her repulsive face and head full of living venomous snakes Medusa is petrifying quite literally since looking directly at her turned people to stone Ever since Perseus cut off her head and presented it to Athena she has been a woman of many forms a dangerous female monster that had to be destroyed an erotic power that could annihilate men and thanks to Freud a woman whose hair was a nest of terrifying penises that signaled castration She has been immortalized by artists from Leonardo da Vinci to Salvador Dal and was the emblem of the Jacobins after the French Revolution Today she is viewed by feminists as a noble victim of patriarchy and used by Versace in the designer's logo for men's underwear haute couture and exotic dinnerware She even gives her name to a sushi roll on a Disney resort menu Why does Medusa continue to have this power to transfix us David Leeming seeks to answer this question in Medusa a biography of the mythical creature Searching for the origins of Medusa's myth in cultures that predate ancient Greece Leeming explores how and why the mythical figure of the gorgon has become one of the most important and enduring ideas in human history From an oil painting by Caravaggio to Clash of the Titans and Dungeons and Dragons he delves into the many depictions of Medusa ultimately revealing that her story is a cultural dream that continues to change and develop with each new era Asking what the evolution of the Medusa myth discloses about our culture and ourselves this book paints an illuminating portrait of a woman who has never ceased to enthrall Medusa's Mirrors Julia M. Walker, 1998 The question of selfhood in Renaissance texts constitutes a scholarly and critical debate of almost unmanageable proportions The author of this work begins by questioning the strategies with which male writers depict powerful women Although Spenser's Britomart Shakespeare's Cleopatra and Milton's Eve figure selfhood very differently and to very different ends they do have two significant elements in common mirrors and transformations that diminish the power of the female self Medusa's Mirror Elizabeth Catanese, 2021-08-01 Evelyn heads to Mt Olympus Theme Park to celebrate her winning a hair design contest where she travels through a mirror in Athena's Hall of Mirrors to a myth but when she meets Perseus on a mission to behead Medusa Evelyn wants to try a more creative approach Aligned to Common Core Standards and correlated to state standards Spellbound is an imprint of Magic Wagon a division of ABDO
