Angels and Angelology in the Middle Ages David Keck,1998-07-23

Recently angels have made a remarkable comeback in the popular imagination their real heyday however was the Middle Ages From the great shrines dedicated to Michael the Archangel at Mont St Michel and Monte Garano to the elaborate metaphysical speculations of the great thirteenth century scholastics angels dominated the physical temporal and intellectual landscape of the medieval West This book offers a full scale study of angels and angelology in the Middle Ages Seeking to discover how and why angels became so important in medieval society David Keck considers a wide range of fascinating questions such as Why do angels appear on baptismal fonts How and why did angels become normative for certain members of the church How did they become a required course of study Did popular beliefs about angels diverge from the angelologies of the theologians Why did some heretics claim to derive their authority from heavenly spirits Keck spreads his net wide in the attempt to catch traces of angels and angelic beliefs in as many portions of the medieval world as possible Metaphysics and mystery plays prayers and pilgrimages Cathars and cathedrals all these and many more disparate sources taken together reveal a society deeply engaged with angels on all its levels and in some unlikely ways

Managing Emotion in

Byzantium Margaret Mullett,Susan Ashbrook Harvey,2022-09-30 Byzantinists entered the study of emotion with Henry Maguire s ground breaking article on sorrow published in 1977 Since then classicists and western medievalists have developed new ways of understanding how emotional communities work and where the ancients concepts of emotion differ from our own and Byzantinists have begun to consider emotions other than sorrow It is time to look at what is distinctive about Byzantine emotion This volume is the first to look at the constellation of Byzantine emotions Originating at an international colloquium at Dumbarton Oaks these papers address issues such as power gender rhetoric or asceticism in Byzantine society through the lens of a single emotion or cluster of emotions Contributors focus not only on the construction of emotions with respect to perception and cognition but also explore how emotions were communicated and exchanged across broad multi linguistic political and social boundaries Priorities are twofold to arrive at an understanding of what the Byzantines thought of as emotions and to comprehend how theory shaped their appraisal of reality Managing Emotion in Byzantium will appeal to researchers and students alike interested in Byzantine perceptions of emotion Byzantine Culture and medieval perceptions of emotion

Miracles in the Trash Barbara Hendrix,2012-09 A mother s womb has become the most dangerous place in the world Innocent life is not to be relegated to the trash cans of the world In this musical God wants to bring humanity back into the embrace of his divine love a humanity that has boldly stepped onto the pathway of its annihilation through the catalysts of abortion and homosexuality Truth has the ability to change hearts and minds and God is truth A beautiful unique life is to be cherished and cared for because it is the most precious of gifts from the creative heart of God What if Mary had aborted Jesus the Son of God In this play she does and is punished by God with a life that never ends After Jesus is aborted and has resumed his heavenly state he is torn between the love that he has for his mother and his Father who seeks to have his mother tried in a court of law for the murder of his Son and thus the Church of God This play sets the stage for the unthinkable and unravels the answers to the controversial questions surrounding a woman s decision to abort her miracle a gift from the love and very heart of God Miracles in the Trash portrays abortion from God s perspective and his boundless love for each individual life he has created revealing that life begins in the heart and mind of God and that he knows who we are before we are even conceived Biblical references support that fact If we believe that God is all knowing then it leads to only one conclusion that he knew who we were before our mother even met our father
