The Cruel Radiance Susie Linfield, 2011-05-27 In The Cruel Radiance Susie Linfield challenges the idea that photographs of political violence exploit their subjects and pander to the voyeuristic tendencies of their viewers Instead she argues passionately that looking at such images and learning to see the people in them is an ethically and politically necessary act that connects us to our modern history of violence and probes the human capacity for cruelty Grappling with critics from Walter Benjamin and Bertolt Brecht to Susan Sontag and the postmoderns and analyzing photographs from such events as the Holocaust China's Cultural Revolution and recent terrorist acts Linfield explores the complex connection between photojournalism and the rise of human rights ideals In the book's concluding section she examines the indispensable work of Robert Capa James Nachtwey and Gilles Peress and asks how photography should respond to the increasingly nihilistic trajectory of modern warfare A bracing and unsettling book The Cruel Radiance convincingly demonstrates that if we hope to alleviate political violence we must first truly understand it and to do that we must begin to look Metal that Will not Bend Kally Forrest, 2011-10-01

In the 1980s there was a surge of trade union power in South Africa The National Union of Metalworkers of South Africa Numsa was prominent and innovative in this assertion of muscle Metal that does not Bend traces Numsa's accumulation from a few small unions in a handful of factories to the staging of national strikes involving thousands of workers in auto and engineering It examines how the union used its influence in macroeconomic and political arenas Numsa was Cosatu's most radical socialist affiliate and the book explores its attempts to implement its vision Historians have framed apartheid's downfall as resulting from the activities of the exiled liberation movement global anti apartheid boycott strategies and internal township insurrection This book reasserts the critical role of the internal labour movement All Or Nothing at All Patricia Abbott, 2004 Author of Goodbye Dear I'll Be Back in a Year A watershed year 1945 is an end and a beginning the end of the largest and most profound war in human history the beginning of an unprecedented period of growth for the United States and its emergence as a world leader the beginning of the baby boom years and thanks to Rosie the Riveter the seed of women's flight from the kitchen Liz Chase Dottie Cook and Sarah Johnson college freshmen are young and eager to be part of this new world But none of them realize the snares that lay waiting for them in this new world problems that women still face today problems that are inherent in being a woman The grand dilemma of love children and careers Patricia Abbott transplanted from her native southern Ohio lives in Arlington Texas Books in Print Supplement ,2002 The Dirty Work of Democracy Antony Altbeker, 2005 The New Republic Herbert David Croly, 2000 Dissent ,2001 Soweto Inside Out Adam Roberts, Joe Thloloe, 2004 This is a title about Soweto from inside and out It is an effort to mark a century since the first forced removals of black Africans from central Johannesburg to the banks of the Klipspruit River It is also in recognition of the limited books available on a world famous city Soweto's huge growth came in the post war decades One famous resident Walter Sisulu believed that the country's modern history is impossible to separate from that of its most famous township The history of South Africa cannot be understood outside the history of Soweto the development of the township and the trials and tribulations of its people are a microcosm of the history of this country The township became a focus of world attention in 1976 during bloody repression of student protests and again during the violence of the Eighties Pace ,2000 Javnost ,2007 The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,2001 Fodor's See It South Africa Fodor's Travel Publications, Inc., 2007 Full color photography and a host of practical information highlight this series of user friendly travel guides which also include descriptions of local sites restaurants hostels shops and nightspots ratings of sites for value historic interest family friendly appeal and other criteria local itineraries and shopping suggestions travel suggestions transportation options and colorful maps Putting People in the Picture Naydene De Lange, Claudia Mitchell, Jean Stuart, 2007 Getting the picture constructing and deconstructing the picture finding the picture viewing the picture being in the picture changing the pictures these are all phrases that apply to the fascinating world of putting people in the picture in visual research within the Social Sciences Putting People in the Picture Visual Methodologies for Social Change focuses on the ways in which researchers practitioners and activists are using such techniques as photo voice collaborative video drawings and other visual and arts based tools as modes of inquiry as modes of representation and as modes of disseminating findings in social research The various chapters address methodological analytical interpretive aesthetic technical and ethical concerns in using visual methodologies in work with young people teachers community health care workers and even the self as researcher The range of issues addressed in the work is broad and includes work in the areas of HIV AIDS schooling poverty gender violence race and children s visions for the future While the studies are situated within a variety of social contexts the focus is primarily on work in Southern Africa The book takes up some of the theoretical and practical challenges offered by Visual Sociology Image based Research Media Studies Rural Development and Community based and Participatory Research and in so doing offers audiences an array of visual approaches to studying and bringing about social change
