Costache, Clare Kunny, 2023-07-31 Diversifying the current art historical scholarship this edited volume presents the untold story of modern art by exposing global voices and perspectives excluded from the privileged and uncontested narrative of isms This volume tells a worldwide story of art with expanded historical narratives of modernism The chapters reflect on a wide range of issues topics and themes that have been marginalized or outright excluded from the canon of modern art The goal of this book is to be a starting point for understanding modern art as a broad and inclusive field of study The topics examine diverse formal expressions innovative conceptual approaches and various media used by artists around the world and forcefully acknowledge the connections between art historical circumstances political environments and social issues such as gender race and social justice The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history imperial and colonial history modernism and globalization Drawing from the Modern: 1880-1945 Jodi Hauptman, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2004 While art history has made room for the flurry of movements that emerged in the period following World War II the myriad artistic developments of the last thirty years have yet to be assigned firm historical categories Drawing from the Modern 1975 2005 the final installment in a series of inaugural year exhibitions produced by the Department of Drawings attempts to tell a provisional story of the years from 1975 to the present as reflected through MoMA's singular drawings collection While making no claims to comprehensiveness the installation details both the blossoming of different art positions on a broad international scale in this era and the coming of age of drawing as an independent and for many artists primary mode of expression Organized chronologically and in loose clusters of artists working in the same milieu or vein of interest the exhibition features works by more than fifty artists including Bruce Nauman Gerhard Richter Martin Kippenberger Marlene Dumas Gabriel Orozco Kara Walker and Luc Tuymans Modern Painting, Drawing & Sculpture, 1958 Who's Afraid of Modern Art? Daniel A. Siedell, 2015-01-07 Modern art can be confusing and intimidating even ugly and blasphemous And yet curator and art critic Daniel A Siedell finds something else something much deeper that resonates with the human experience With over thirty essays on such diverse artists as Andy Warhol Thomas Kinkade Diego Velazquez Robyn O Neil Claudia Alvarez and Andrei Rublev Siedell offers a highly personal approach to modern art that is informed by nearly twenty years of experience as a museum curator art historian and educator Siedell combines his experience in the contemporary art world with a theological perspective that serves to deepen the experience of art allowing the work of art to work as art and not covert philosophy or theology or visual illustrations of ideas meanings and worldviews Who s Afraid of Modern Art celebrates the surprising beauty of art that emerges from and embraces pain and suffering if only we take the time to listen Indeed as Siedell reveals a painting is much more than meets the eye So who s afraid of modern art Siedell s answer might surprise you Midcentury Modern Art in Texas Katie Robinson

Edwards,2014-07-01 Before Abstract Expressionism of New York City was canonized as American postwar modernism the United States was filled with localized manifestations of modern art One such place where considerable modernist activity occurred was Texas where artists absorbed and interpreted the latest most radical formal lessons from Mexico the East Coast and Europe while still responding to the state s dramatic history and geography This barely known chapter in the story of American art is the focus of Midcentury Modern Art in Texas Presenting new research and artwork that has never before been published Katie Robinson Edwards examines the contributions of many modernist painters and sculptors in Texas with an emphasis on the era s most abstract and compelling artists Edwards looks first at the Dallas Nine and the 1936 Texas Centennial which offered local artists a chance to take stock of who they were and where they stood within the national artistic setting She then traces the modernist impulse through various manifestations including the foundations of early Texas modernism in Houston early practitioners of abstraction and non objectivity the Fort Worth Circle artists at the University of Texas at Austin Houston artists in the 1950s sculpture in and around an influential Fort Worth studio and to see how some Texas artists fared on a national scale the Museum of Modern Art s Americans exhibitions The first full length treatment of abstract art in Texas during this vital and canon defining period Midcentury Modern Art in Texas gives these artists their due place in American art while also valuing the quality of Texan ness that subtly undergirds much of their production Learning to Look at Modern Art Mary Acton,2004 This companion text to the author s Learning to Look at
