The Movie Moon:

Making Moon: A British Sci-Fi Cult Classic Simon Ward, 2019-10-15 The official 10th anniversary making of book for the Duncan Jones directed sci fi film Moon Directed by Duncan Jones and written by Nathan Parker from a story by Jones Moon is a 2009 science fiction drama following Sam Bell a man who experiences a personal crisis as he nears the end of a three year solitary stint mining helium 3 on the moon Independently financed and produced on a modest budget Moon became an instant cult classic It was well received by critics and audiences alike and was particularly praised for its scientific plausibility and realism Making Moon will take an in depth look back at the film s production It features interviews with the film s key creatives and includes rare concept and behind the scenes images as well as excerpts from the original shooting script

APOLLO: A Decade of Achievement Paul I. Casey, 2013-10-25 The race for space begins on October 4 1957 as the Soviet Union stuns the world and launches the first man made satellite a feat until then only read about in science fiction America is caught unprepared for 1957 and must answer this embarrassment to the world by proving its superiority however each time America tries to launch a satellite let alone test a new rocket it fails How could America have taken a back seat in the missile race How did America take the lead and win the race to the moon in as little as ten years How did America gain the necessary technology and ingenuity to not only launch men into outer space but also land them on the moon and safely return Why did man even go to the moon How has the space program affected our lives today Casey spent his life researching the space program and interviewing many people involved in it from scientists to astronauts to find answers to these questions Casey an accomplished technical writer astronomy columnist and artist began to write this book after he was inspired as a young child when he witnessed along with the rest of the world Apollo 11 land three men on the moon in 1969 Casey enjoyed educating students about the space program and wrote this book to share an enthusiasm about science especially for those never thought about looking up at the night sky and wondering about the stars Casey wanted students to ask questions and to gain a perspective on how incredible science is But mostly he wanted to inspire students to pursue a career in science to continue the peaceful exploration of space for generations to come

The Films of Woody Allen Charles L. P. Silet, 2006 From What s Up Tiger Lily to Match Point Woody Allen s work has generated substantial interest among scholars and professionals who have written extensively about the director In The Films of Woody Allen Critical Essays Charles L P Silet brings together two dozen scholarly articles that address the core of Allen s work from a variety of cultural and theoretical perspectives With a special emphasis on his films of the 1980s this collection includes both general essays that examine various themes and issues encompassed in Allen s repertoire as well as discussions that focus on one or two specific films General essays explore Allen s Jewish background as a religious and cultural facet his apparent love affair with New York City and his relation to various strains of humor particularly American film humor but also Allen s broad use of such traditional comic tropes as irony and parody The essays on individual films include examinations of some of Allen s most significant work including Love and Death Annie Hall Interiors Crimes and Misdemeanors Hannah and Her Sisters Manhattan and Shadows and Fog A number of the articles collected here were originally published in now hard to locate places while others were selected from journals not usually associated with film studies The result is an anthology of essays that presents an overview of the central issues raised by Allen s body of work as well as a close examination of fourteen individual films that convey these larger themes A wide ranging exploration of one of America s most innovative and productive modern directors this book should appeal to both professionals and students of contemporary film comedy

The Catholic Crusade Against the Movies, 1940-1975 Gregory D. Black,1998-01-13 For more than three decades the Catholic church through its Legion of Decency had the power to control the content of Hollywood films From the mid 1930s to the late 1960s the Catholic Legion served as a moral guardian for the American public Hollywood studios submitted their films to the Legion for a rating which varied from general approval to condemnation This book details how a religious organisation got control of Hollywood and how films like A Streetcar Named Desire Lolita and Tea and Sympathy were altered by the Legion to make them morally acceptable Documenting the inner workings of the Legion The Catholic Crusade against the Movies also examines how the changes in the movie industry and American society at large in the post World War II era eventually conspired against the Legion s power and so lead to its demise
