Interviews with 21 prominent feature film editors highlight this long overdue look at the role of film editors the importance of their work and the nature of their craft Organized to provide historical continuity and to trace professional collaborations among the subjects Selected Takes features editors whose credits include such diverse films as Ben Hur The French Connection The Godfather and E T Each chapter includes a brief introduction to the artist background information a filmography of feature length works and personal recollections of specific films producers and directors as well as helpful comments on editing techniques A glossary of terms commonly used in film editing and pertinent references found in the interviews complement the work Film students scholars and educators as well as film industry professionals and moviegoers will find Selected Takes both entertaining and instructive    The Paris Trap Joseph Hone, 2014-06-19 Joseph Hone's The Paris Trap first published in 1977 saw him step aside from his sequence of Peter Marlow novels to offer a different kind of political thriller Jim Hackett and Harry Tyson first met in Paris in days of hope Hackett a promising actor Tyson a budding writer Twenty years later their dreams soured they are reunited in Paris for a substantive project Hackett now a movie actor has been cast in a major film derived from a spy novel authored by Tyson who now works for British intelligence But the plot of the film concerning a Palestinian terrorist cell is about to be overtaken in the dramatic stakes by real events A fine example of a vastly popular genre the thinking man's thriller Irish Times Through a distorting filter of betrayals private and public Joseph Hone conducts us to a final scene so dire that Hamlet by comparison leaves the stage tidy Guardian
