The Multiethnic Society And Local Government International Research And Good Practices:

The Multiethnic Society and Local Government Marga Pröhl, 1998 Global Knowledge Networks and International Development Simon Maxwell, Dr Diane L Stone, 2004-08-02 This volume draws together leading experts from academia think tanks and donor agencies to examine the impact of transnational knowledge networks in the formulation of local national and global policy in the field of international development and transition studies These leading contributors pay particular attention to the global reach of research and the manner in which knowledge is incorporated into and shapes transnational policy domains They show how the knowledge agenda has become a central part of the discourse of both developing societies and advanced economies Governments and international organizations devote considerable financial resources to both in house and contracted research This volume will be of great interest to students researchers and policy makers concerned with global policy global governance and development Computers for the Cities of Tomorrow Arre Zuurmond, 1998 La 4e de couverture indique While information and communication technologies have thus far been used for the most part to improve efficiency in local government aspects such as better service for citizens and more interaction between citizens and local government have become increasingly important The international network Cities of Tomorrow has gathered good examples of how these technologies have been implemented in local government worldwide Examples range from systems which enable various services for the citizen via one source to forms of teledemocracy which enable the interaction between the local government body and the citizen The publication deals with the strategic implementation rather than the technical aspects of information and communication technologies This book is therefore directed at decision makers in local government who should not leave this matter up to technicians alone German Americana Christoph Strupp, Kai Dreisbach, 2007 A comprehensive bibliography of books and scholarship on the United States produced in German speaking countries from 1956 2005 Internationalizing US Student Affairs Practice Tamara Yakaboski, Brett Perozzi, 2018-05-30 Grounded in research and theory Internationalizing US Student Affairs Practice presents an inclusive framework for enhancing the intercultural competencies of practitioners students and faculty in institutions of higher education This cutting edge book explores how student affairs practitioners are well positioned to integrate internationalization strategies across student affairs divisions and functions Each chapter intentionally incorporates theories and literature from higher education and student affairs disciplines infused with international and multicultural education Promising Practices case studies written and submitted by practitioners around the world appear throughout the book to demonstrate practical applications in non US settings The strategies in this book help student affairs practitioners enhance the intercultural development of support programs and services all without leaving the home campus Bibliographic Guide to Psychology New York Public Library. Research Libraries, 1999 Critical Multicultural Practice in Social Work Charlotte Williams, 2020-07-16 Critical multicultural practice rather than being a specialism is integral to Australian social work Drawing on critical race theory critical multiculturalism intersectionality and critical reflection as practice theory this major new edited collection challenges many of the dominant assumptions of cross cultural social work and provides instead a new model of transformative engagement Key concepts are considered including identity culture diversity and superdiversity how power and privilege shape everyday interactions and what is meant by citizenship in the contemporary context Part One explores the changing nature of multicultural practice in Australia including our society s changing demographic profile the impact of asylum and refugee migrations race and racism and cultural identity Indigenous perspectives and the relationship with multicultural practice are examined together with the ethical and legal basis for multicultural practice This part concludes with an outline of the editors framework for critical multicultural practice Part Two draws on contributions from a range of practitioners and offers new perspectives on diverse fields including child protection mental health disability ageing homelessness and rural and regional practice Featuring case studies and insights drawn from across the spectrum of practice this book is a vital resource for all social workers practising in Australia today A rich and nuanced analysis of what is happening at the interfaces of our work and the lives of Australian citizens it articulates ways forward that are genuine bold and empathetic From the foreword by Professor Kerry Arabena The University of Melbourne
