Faith, Family, and Flag Joanna Dee Das, 2025-11-25 Sons of Britches The Great American Chuckwagon Dinner Show The Haygoods The Grand Jubilee These are just a couple of the many shows performed in Branson MO where the seemingly innocent

entertainment fuels American conservatism Branson Missouri the Ozark Mountain mecca of wholesome entertainment has been home to countless stage shows espousing patriotism and Christianity welcoming over ten million visitors a year Some consider it God's Country and others as close to Hell as anything on Earth For Joanna Dee Das Branson is a political religious and cultural harbinger of a certain enduring dream of what America is She takes Branson more seriously than the light hearted fun it advertises and maybe we should too For Das Branson's performers offer visions of the American Dream that embody a set of values known as the three Fs faith family and flag Branson boosters insist that these are universal values that welcome all people the city aims to capture as many tourists as possible But over the past several decades faith family and flag have become markers of contemporary conservatism The shows and culture of Branson for all their fun and laughter have been a galvanizing political force for white working and middle class Christian Americans For social and economic conservatives alike Branson is practically proof of concept for America as they want it to be Faith Family and Flag is a comprehensive history of the Branson entertainment industry within the context of America's long culture wars Das reveals how and why a town known for popular entertainment a domain associated most often with the political left Hollywood liberals came to be so important to the political right and its vision for America

The Rockefeller Collection of American Art at the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco, Marc Simpson, Patricia A. Junker, 1994. The American art collection assembled by Mr and Mrs John D. Rockefeller 3rd during the 1960s and 1970s constitutes one of the great private collections of historic American painting. This book examines the collection in depth, focusing on 140 works donated to the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco in the years since 1979. The works reproduced include examples from America's foremost realist masters. Among them are portraits by John Singleton Copley and Charles Willson Peale, landscapes by Thomas Cole, Frederic E. Church and Martin Johnson Heade, George Caleb Bingham's extraordinary Boatmen on the Missouri, one of Edward Hicks's most ambitious treatments of The Peaceable Kingdom, watercolors, drawings and an early Civil War oil by Winslow Homer, and works by Eastman Johnson, Thomas Anshutz, John Frederick Peto, Grant Wood, Charles Sheeler and Andrew Wyeth. Each work is reproduced here in full color. The accompanying texts comprised of extracts from contemporary accounts by artists, critics, patrons and sitters are lively and illuminating guides to understanding each work's history and significance. A detailed history of ownership and public exhibition and a selected bibliography are also provided for each painting. In many cases this is the first time these important materials have appeared in print. The fascinating introductory essay examines the context of the Rockefellers collecting, the directions they considered in forming the collection, their increasing sense of responsibility.
