several generations of contemporary artists working in wood including Japanese American History Brian Niiya, Japanese American National Museum (Los Angeles, Calif.), 1993 Produced under the auspices of the Japanese American National Museum in Los Angeles this comprehensive reference culls information from primary sources Japanese language texts and documents oral histories and other previously neglected or obscured materials to document the history and nature of the Japanese American experience as told by the people who lived it The volume is divided into three major sections a chronology with some 800 entries a 400 entry encyclopedia covering people events groups and cultural terms and an annotated bibliography of major works on Japanese Americans Includes about 80 bandw illustrations and photographs Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Black Walnut Bob Chenoweth, 1995 Black Walnut provides important reference information and interesting reading about the Eastern black walnut for forestry educators and students environmentalists and related professions The author examines current research being done on black walnuts at major universities in the United States as well as the history different uses and importance of black walnuts An eight page color photo section and nearly 40 black and white photographs are included Sawdust and Soul William Johnson Everett, John W. de Gruchy, 2014-12-16 An American ethicist and a South African theologian reflect on their work with wood and how it has helped them find creativity and meaning in experiences of both loss and transformation Through their friendship correspondence and work together they have developed a rich narrative about the way this craftwork has shaped their relationships with family friends and their natural environment Their conversation invites both craftspeople and religious seekers to join them on a spiritual journey toward fresh insight and inspiration Portfolio, 1981 View of the Pinnacle Stephen Little, Edmund J. Lewis, 2011 View of the Pinnacle is a richly illustrated catalogue featuring more than eighty suzuribako dating from the fourteenth through the twentieth centuries from the Edmund and Julia Lewis Collection Suzuribako the exquisite lacquer boxes designed to hold the implements used in creating brush and ink calligraphy have for centuries combined utilitarian function with superb craftsmanship The art of creating suzuribako came into being during the Heian period in Japan 794-1185 when aristocratic culture both artistic and literary flourished it was in full flower during the sixteenth century and continued into modern times The designs on suzuribako frequently represent highly refined visual representations of classical poetry literature mythology and history Diverse subjects are depicted including religious figures philosophers poets animals mythical creatures and landscapes real and imagined These artistic representations are often combined with calligraphed poems or excerpts from classical literature In the catalogue Stephen Little and Edmund Lewis give equal attention to both the literary content of the suzuribako and the lacquer techniques used in crafting them The literary references and themes drawn as much from Chinese as from Japanese classical texts reflect the deep knowledge of Chinese and Japanese classical literature among the literate classes in Japan from the eighth century onward A full appreciation of the themes and metaphorical imagery incorporated into many of the boxes requires a deep cultural sophistication on the part of the viewer Stephen Little describing the layered literary themes frequently depicted in suzuribako notes that the excavation of hidden layers of meaning in a box's decoration becomes a thrilling quest The volume includes an essay by Edmund Lewis on the nuances of meaning in suzuribako designs and the interviewing of the artistic and literary expressions embodied in them In a second essay John Stevens presents a brief history of Japanese calligraphy and explains its central importance in Japanese cultural expression American Furniture 2003 Luke Beckerdite,2003 An annual publication forging a link between social history American studies and the decorative arts They Painted from Their Hearts Mayumi Tsutakawa,1994 Examines the work of 18 Asian Pacific American artists creating in the Pacific Northwest during the period from 1900 to 1960 Essays on art in Seattle Asian American painters of Washington state early Asian American photographers and the legacy of Asian American art accompany color paintings and American Craft ,1993 Makers Janet Koplos,Bruce Metcalf,2010 Makers A History of American Studio Craft
