Studies In 17th Century Imagery Volume 2:

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 1, 600-1660 George Watson,Ian Roy Willison,1974-08-29 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 1 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Painted Closet of Lady Anne Bacon Drury H.L. Meakin,2017-07-05 Lady Anne Bacon Drury 1572 1624 was the granddaughter and niece of two of England s Lord Keepers of the Great Seal Sir Nicholas Bacon and Sir Francis Bacon Lady Anne was also the friend and patroness of John Donne and Joseph Hall however she deserves to be remembered in her own right Within her massive country house Lady Anne created a tiny painted room that she seems to have used as a kind of three dimensional book The walls consisted of panels of pictures and mottoes grouped under Latin sentences These panels can still be viewed in a Suffolk museum Christchurch Mansion in Ipswich Some panels point to classical and Biblical sources and to popular emblem books The sources of other panels are more recondite while still others are original compositions by Lady Anne The panels exhibit a contemptus mundi theme and reflect a struggle with ambition pride and even despair Some panels also appear to register carefully veiled but pointed critiques of political and religious events and figures Lady Anne s painted closet or architext is thus relevant to a wide range of early modern scholarship in various disciplines but is as yet largely unappreciated For the first time in four hundred years this book fully describes the closet and places it in its personal social intellectual and aesthetic contexts It argues for the painted closet s importance for understanding early modern conceptualizations of private and public spaces and for illuminating fundamental early modern habits of seeing and reading especially combinations of text and image Finally this book explores the closet as an example of the ingenious ways in which female subjectivity found ways to express itself even within the constraints of early modern patriarchal society in England The Emblem in Early Modern Europe Professor Peter M Daly,2014-06-28 The emblem was big business in early modern Europe used extensively not only in printed books and broadsheets but also to decorate pottery metalware furniture glass and windows and numerous other domestic devotional and political objects At its most basic level simply a combination of symbolic visual image and texts an emblem is a hybrid composed of words and picture However as this book demonstrates understanding the precise and often multiple meaning intention and message emblems conveyed can prove a remarkably slippery process Slavery and the Invention of Dutch Art Caroline Fowler,2024-12-06 In Slavery and the Invention of Dutch Art Caroline Fowler examines the fundamental role of the transatlantic slave trade in the production and evolution of seventeenth century Dutch art Whereas the sixteenth century image debates in Europe engaged with crises around the representation of divinity Fowler argues that the rise of the transatlantic slave trade created a visual field of uncertainty around picturing the transformation of life into property Fowler demonstrates how the emergence of landscape maritime and botanical painting were deeply intertwined with slavery's economic expansion Moreover she considers how the development of one of the first art markets was inextricable from the trade in human lives as chattel property Reading seventeenth century legal theory natural history inventories and political pamphlets alongside contemporary poetry theory and philosophy from Black feminism and the African diaspora Fowler demonstrates that ideas about property personhood and citizenship were central to the oeuvres of artists such as Rembrandt van Rijn Hercules Segers Frans Post Johannes Vermeer and Maria Sibylla Merian and therefore inescapably within slavery's grasp
